Arena costs more, but...

The municipal council of the Village of Madoc is spending more money on fixing up the Madoc Arena than it originally figured on.

"But it is worth it," says Reeve T. C. (Bert) Barton.

The council had originally budgeted some $1,500 for renovations, but figure current work on the premises will cost around $6,500.

New boards are being placed around the ice surface, showers are being added in two of the dressing rooms, all of the dress rooms are being repainted, and holes "kicked in various walls around the building" are being repaired.

Village clerk - treasurer Tom Burnside pointed to some of the holes that had been repaired.

"Kicked in," he emphasized.

"It should never have happened," commented the reeve.

"We need more police work, and we're going to have it."

Reeve Barton notes that some people in the village are complaining about spending money on the arena at this time since it was condemned in 1970.

"We were told then by Ontario Government engineers that conducted a study of the structure that if we had six inches of snow on the roof, and a 40 mile per hour wind, the building wouldn't be safe."

"But a group of villagers also studied the structure and we feel it is well worth the money to fix the rink up now, because it is going to have to last us at least another few years."

The reeve says there is talk of a new arena, but he feels it is still five years away from reality.

Meanwhile, he notes that the rink as it was, was dangerous snow or no snow, wind or no wind.

"It was in pretty bad shape," he says.

"Boards were leaning, patches were coming out, doors were hanging loose...all very dangerous to kids."

"Fixing up the arena was the only solution."

Volunteers are needed to help carry out the work, however, and many have stepped forward to offer an evening or more. Anybody able to help in the project is asked to call Mr. Burnside as soon as possible for more information.

Expect ice by Oct. 1st

There'll be ice in the Madoc Arena a lot earlier than usual this year.

Reeve T. C. Barton told the Madoc Review today that he hopes there will be ice in the building by October 1 - some two months earlier than the usual December 1 starting date.

The reason - the new evaporated condenser acquired by the village for use by the arena.

In previous years, it took approximately 50,000 gallons of water a day to keep the artificial ice, and at this time of year, amounts of water in that quantity were not available without running the municipal system short.

Now, with the condenser, the system will hardly use any water at all.

The condenser, along with the the new compressor installed a few months ago, will both be able to be used in a new arena if and when one is built.

Waterford Purina-Ettes

Waterford has defeated the Purina-Ettes to win the Ontario AA Championship.

The Purina-Ettes bowed out to Waterford in two hard fought games.

The first game, played in Madoc, saw the Purina-Ettes go down to defeat after holding the Waterford team to a 5-3 game until the 8th inning.

Waterford's use of bench relief beginning in the 8th inning proved to be the turning point. They scored four in the 8th, four more in the 9th to take the game 11-5.

On the weekend, the second game was played at Waterford, going into 13 innings before the Waterford team could win the series.

There will be a Purina-Ettes night September 20 at the Kiwanis Centre, starting at 9p.m., music provided by Don Osborne, a disc jockey from Oshawa.

Trophies will be presented at the dance. Advanced tickets may be purchased from Jane and Joan Bailey, Rosanne Chapman or at Ed Kramp's Supertest garage at $3 per couple. There is a limited number of tickets to be sold.

ORSA final here Saturday

The ORSA Squirt A Finals will continue in the Madoc Ball Park Saturday, Sept 7 at 2p.m. as Caledonia meets the Eldorado Expos in the second game of the series. Caledonia presently holds a one game to nothing edge.

Last Tuesday night, Eldorado hosted Foxboro in an exhibition game at the Madoc Ball Park. Raymond Murphy was the winning pitcher.

The following Thursday, Eldorado and Marmora met in the first game of the Central Hastings Squirt League play-downs.

Eldorado took this game 12-2 with Randy Gray on the mound.

In hitting for Eldorado, B. Bateman went 3 for 4; S. Shaw 2 for 3; single hits went to Gary, Sedgewick, Donaldson, Franks and Parks.

Whoops...!

Whoops....sorry, but we ran into some trouble producing the Madoc Review this week.

A breakdown in mechanical equipment hindered our progress, and while we had originally planned a 20 page paper, we've had to settle for a 16.

It means that some pictures and stories intended for this week didn't make it - but we'll have them in next week.

Meanwhile, please remember that the Review is your newspaper - and we'd like to publish all the news of the area.

If you or your group are doing something, tell us about it. Just phone the Review office.

The winner if this series will advance into the finals against Springbrook who won their round against Madoc in three straight.

Mary Warren dies at home

It was with deep regret that relatives and friends heard of the sudden death of Mary Warren at her home in Madoc, on August 25. She was in her 79th year.

Mrs. Warren was the former Mary Taylor of Bathurst, Ont. Daughter of the late Robert Taylor and Elizabeth Fleming of Bathurst, she is survived by her husband Charles Warren, also by four children, Mrs. John (Gwen) Cooper of Islington, Ernest Warren of Hamilton, Mrs. Nelson (Jean) Reynolds of Islington, Robert (Ellwood) Warren of Arizona.

Dearly loved by ten grandchildren, also by her brother Herbert Taylor, Bathurst, two sisters, Mrs. Ernest (Mina) Sysick, Smith Falls and Mrs. Susan Stephenson of Toronto.

She was predeceased by three brothers, Joseph, Edward and Michael.

Mrs. Warren was a member of the ACW and Senior Citizens Club of Madoc.

She rested at the MacKenzie Funeral Home, Madoc until Tuesday, August 27, then to St. John The Baptist Church of which she was a member. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. C. Betts and the large crowd showed the high esteem in which she was held.

Interment was at the White Lake Cemetery.

NEW SEWER LINE

A new water and sewer line is going in on Nelson Street, Madoc. The village is carrying out the project itself, and was actually forced into the program, because the municipality's number two well has been draining private wells along the street. The new well, proving a real boon to the village as a whole, can pump 375 gallons a minute if necessary. And while it is 160 feet deep, water levels are within 15 feet of the top. Plans call for sewer and water mains to be placed along Bingham Street next.

Paper drive Sat.

The Tri-town paper drive, run this month by the 4H Natural Resources Club, is now in its eighth installment.

While the volume declined during the summer months, it is expected to return to normal now.

The time will remain the same as during the summer: Saturday, Sept. 7, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The reduction in time has greatly reduced storage problems during inclement weather etc.

Drop-off points will also remain the same.

Due to unforeseen developments, the resumption of the glass collection will be postponed until the October collection. The glass must be clean and free from metal or plastic tags, lids etc. before it can be picked up.

The 4H Natural Resources Club is urging the entire community to help them in their efforts to keep the environment clean.

New Quinte Exhibition has old fair touch

An old-fashioned style of fall fair is being offered at the Quinte Exhibition and Raceway in Belleville this year.

The gates will open at 7 p.m. on September 10, and the fair will run through Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The dates have been changed from August dates used for several years, and it is expected that the later time will not only be more favorable weather-wise, but also better for the exhibiting of most farm, garden and orchard products.

Winning an aeroplane ride with Hastings MP Jack Ellis will be the luck of three visitors to the fair, and is one of the highlights this year. Mr. Ellis has several years of flying experience and the winners who go up with him in his Cherokee 140 can be assured they are flying with a good pilot.

Gate prizes and other awards include gift certificates from Consaul's Frontier Shop, all of Belleville's supermarkets, dinner for two at several fine dining establishments, and aeroplane rides with Loyal Air Lines: a chance to "see the fair from the air."

A major attraction, the Canadian Uniroyal Thrill Drivers, will put their stockmodel 1974 Pontiacs through a series of stunts, criss-crossing a hair's breath apart, and leaping from ramp to ramp in a high speed thrill show while Koko the Clown takes chances on the track in his Crazy Kar.

Livestock will form a large part of the fair with various types of horses, cattle, poultry and barrow swine. The junior livestock show will be an opening feature in the evening of Sept. 10. A barrow swine show will take place Sept. 11. A special showing of horses, and a horse and pony drawing contest will be grandstand attraction on the Thursday evening.

Personal exhibits cover a wide range of homecrafts plus art and photography from amateur to professional. Commercial display space has been filling up well in advance of fair dates this year, an appreciated factor which has made organization smoother for exhibition staff, and a fine display of merchandise will be offered.

The Conklin Midway will bring back the old-fashioned fun of fantastic rides plus some exciting new ones such as the Polar Express which is so large that it takes two forty foot trailers to move it. This summer marks the first time it has been shown away from the C.N.E.

Other firsts are the Rok 'N' Rol Ride and the high flying Paratrooper. And Conklin's are re-introducing the Terrestrial Dive: the beautiful Miss Astra performs daily, for free, the breathtaking high dive from a 60 foot tower into an exploding air bag.

The great favorite with the small fry, the Kenjen Petting Zoo, is returning. The zoo features several small animals which the children can pet and feed.

An ever popular event, the Hastings Dairy Princess Contest, will take place on Friday evening, Sept. 13. And a welcome note to 'all-day-fair-goers' is the Women's Institute Restaurant in the BenBlecker Building where delicious home-cooked meals will be served.

HE LOVES SPORTS

TODAY'S CHILD

ALLEN

You can guess from Jamie's smile that he is an enthusiast. The good-looking 12-year-old has many interests and is full of zest about all of them. Probably sports are at the top of his list. He is keen on hockey, playing either goal or defence, and his favorite reading is hockey magazines. He is first baseman on a baseball team, a forward in basketball and plays any position in football.

An outdoor boy, Jamie enjoys camping, fishing, canoeing and boating. He is also fond of crafts and woodworking.

Healthy, active Jamie has brown eyes, light-brown hair and fair skin. He is generally cheerful though he can fly off on occasion. He is neat and tidy and enjoys helping with household chores.

Jamie is in senior opportunity class but his teacher feels he may be able to enter the regular school stream in the future.

Farm life rather appeals to Jamie because he is especially fond of animals.

This lad needs warm, understanding parents who will give him time to feel he is really part of their family. He would like to maintain limited contact with two brothers and a sister who are not to be adopted with him.

To inquire about adopting Jamie, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, please contact your local Children's Aid Society.

Please - Avoid these well-intentioned boners!

some people who visit hospitalized friends and relatives, while hoping to help the patients get well, may make them worse--without knowing it!

Here are a few things you should NOT do:

1. Don't bring exotic things to eat or drink unless you've first asked the hospital or doctor. They know what and when a patient should be fed while he's off his feed.
2. Don't go in to see someone if he already has several visitors. Wait for some of them to leave. Too large a crowd can be very tiring for sick people.
3. Don't be embarrassed about bringing flowers to men as well as women patients. Many hospital staffs have long known that the beauty and vitality of flowers have a positive psychological effect on the morale of many patients that sometime helps speed recovery.
4. Don't touch a patient's oxygen, intravenous, Miller-Abbott tubes, etc. If this kind of equipment needs adjusting, ask the nurse, who is equipped to handle them.
5. Don't bring any medicines to a hospital patient, not even aspirin or vitamins or the pills he took at home, unless requested to by his doctor or the hospital. You can usually depend on the hospital staff to see that he gets the right medication.
6. Don't visit a hospital patient if you have a cold. His resistance to germs is likely to be low, and he could catch your disease. Instead, send flowers to show your care.
7. Don't bring patients large heavy books. He may be unable to hold them and therefore can't read them until he's recovered!

If you avoid these inhospitable in-hospital errors, the patient is much less likely to get sick of seeing you!

A number of those at the event were dressed in appropriate Centennial attire. Horses and buggies were a reminder of the transportation of days gone by.

C.H.S.S. Viewpoint

By Garnet Pigden

The first week of school is always characterized by excited, wide-eyed freshmen, who nervously explore this vast building and the calm, sophisticated seniors, who meander through the corridors with confidence and casualness.

All are starting another year of learning, of books, new teachers and hated homework.

Pehrpas this sounds a bit drab, but let us not mislead you. Our institution of education plays an invaluable roll in developing our minds and personalities which will have a definite beatitude to us in later years.

There is no justification for the biased belief that school is a place to be despised. We are forced into learning things that may never prove useful to us in our future careers, and so the potential scholar builds up a mental block towards school. However, this block is usually surmounted by the realization that education is an admirable thing, and a likeable thing. Knowledge and training are everything.

INITIATION

Initiation should return, for with it vanished the gap that exists between seniors and freshmen. The new students had a chance to meet these elders of the school and gone was their shyness, and awkwardness, in approaching one of the veterans of the school for assistance. From initiation new students would feel more of a part of this place of higher learning. Of course, the initiation should be moderate, and not abusive as it became in years previous.

We (of the Inter-County Council, I.H.C.) believe that this school year will prove to be a tremendous exceedure in athletic, academic and social functions in comparison with past years. We would like to wish all the students starting and returning to Centre Hastings the best of luck in achieving a happy, successful year in 1974-75.

Students and teachers who have any newsworthy contributions to this section, please give them to me or drop them in at the I.H.C. mail-box in the school office.

This 'n that around C.H.S.S. New school term underway

By GARNET PIGDEN

Centre Hastings Secondary School officially welcomed its students at the assembly held in the gymnasium as the 1974-75 school year got underway Tuesday, Sept. 3, at 9 a.m.

New principal

Robert Henderson, formerly vice-principal at Moira S.S. in Belleville, has assumed the duties of principal at CHSS, and now resides at 230 St. Lawrence St., E., in Madoc Village. He is looking forward to becoming acquainted with all his students and as many parents as possible and invites them to contact him at any time at the school.

New teachers

Three new teachers are Mrs. Betty Pyear, who will teach physical education and work in the special education program, Mrs. Yvonne Maboo, who will teach physical education and English, and Donald Kerr, who will instruct in geology and geography.

26ths important

The 26th of this month and next are important dates for students to remember. September 26, all students will be photographed. Each is required to bring their money in advance if wanting pictures for themselves.

October 26 is commencement, a yearly event when awards and certificates for achievement and diplomas for graduation are given out.

Policies revamped

The examination and promotion policies have been revamped this year. There will be two sets of exams - the first in January, with results incorporated into the spring report, and the second in June, a comprehensive set covering the year's work. For promotion, students who have not obtained a passing average in the year's work in any subject, but who get 51 per cent or higher in the comprehensive June exam, will receive this mark and will be granted the credit.

Nursery school

Once again the nursery school will be operating at Centre Hastings Secondary School. It will be supervised by parent volunteers and special education students. It was very successful in the past. If you, as a parent, wish to volunteer your services please contact Bud Sutton, head of special education at the school.

Sports swing

School sports are getting into full swing. For news hot off the gridiron, soccer field and volleyball and basketball courts, consult this section of the community newspaper. Parents are invited and encouraged to attend all games. Do encourage students you know to participate in the sports offered, for athletics is as much a part of high school life as academic achievement.

"How do they tell

One foot in the furrow' by Bob Trotter

Letters are appreciated by Bob Trotter, PO Box 267, Elmira

The world has its share of romantics. But a great many farmers these days could do with a little less romance and a little more realism.

Dr. C.T.M. Hadwen, a sociologist at the University of Guelph, spoke a few weeks ago to a gathering of 4-H homemakers. He said there is a lot to be said for growing up in the country but many "urban romantics" don't know what rural life is or who lives in the country or what goes on down on the farm.

These urban romantics really want to live in a park, some place where there is no change, no machinery, no smells, a place that always looks pretty and is "nice."

Urban romantics are driving farmers up the wall and across the ceiling. Dr. Hadwen — and I agree with him — maintains that people who live in the country understand city people but the reverse is simply not true. Urbanites do not understand farmers and farming.

This fact was brought home to me many years ago when a friend of mine who lived on the farm with his parents had a pony. The pony was a great source of pleasure to all of us. We rode that poor little gal almost every day, all day, during the summer.

One summer, we grew too big for the pony and rode two horses instead. We loved the pony and went to see her every day, caressed her and fed her carrots and apples. One day, she was gone.

"Where's Missie?" I asked.

"We sold her," said my friend, without a tinge of regret in his voice. "Dad said she was no longer being used. He said she was useless to us now so he sold her to somebody who would use her."

Few farmers keep an animal on the place for sentimental reasons. Yet, the urban romantics don't understand this. Lest you think I am not a romantic, let me hasten to explain that we have an aged old mare with a permanent limp around our place. She is useless except as a brood mare but all our girls learned to ride on her and they would never forgive me if I sold her for dog food.

Getting back to other urban romantics, Dr. Hadwen says they don't understand anything about hog lagoons or liquid manure. He is right, too, when he says that in almost every case where an urban romantic has complained to the authorities about farm odors, the farmer has lost.

And the farmer simply doesn't need these complainers, he told the 4-H members.

This column has pointed out many times that the joys of country living are many and varied but there are certain drawbacks which any person who makes the decision to live in a rural area must be prepared to accept. Odor is one of them.

Others come to mind: big, noisy machinery; tearing out of fencerows and hedges; tearing down of pretty but inefficient old barns; unsightly manure yards and backyards during busy days of the seeding and harvest seasons; raucous sounds from bawling cattle and squealing hogs.

Farming is vastly different today than it was 50 or even 20 years ago. Farmers have adapted to the changes but urbanites still have a quaint and unreal picture of what a farmer is and what he does. Few farmers walk through a manureyard in bib overalls and straw hat with a pail of kitchen slops in each hand to feed the hogs. It simply is not done that way today.

I was in a hog barn recently which was completely automatic. Huge fans kept it as close to a mean temperature as possible. The farmer simply pressed a button and automatic feeders went to work for him. The feed was scientifically mixed before going into the feeders.

That hog barn was as clean as a kitchen; cleaner, in fact, than many kitchens owned by the urban romantics who come to the country and scream at neighboring farms about odors. Yet, the farmer was there long before the urbanite moved out.

It seems justice is lacking somewhere.

TODAY'S HEALTH

Regular exercise leads to longer, healthier life

by David Woods

There are no guarantees for good health — only guidelines. Things might be different if we could choose our own parents — heredity is, after all, a major factor in health and longevity.

But there are other factors over which the individual does have some control. One of these is the amount and kind of exercise taken.

The aim of exercise should be to produce efficient levels of cardio-respiratory fitness. To do that, it must be fairly strenuous as well as regular. In other words, driving a powerboat may be fun, and jogging once a month may seem virtuous — but neither, really, is exercise.

Dr. Roy J. Shephard, a professor of applied physiology at the University of Toronto, says that not only should exercise programs have a certain intensity, they should also be enjoyable. Shephard lists walking, jogging, swimming (if it's done vigorously enough), cross-country skiing, and cycling as effective types of exercise.

He also emphasizes that fitness should be a part of our lives — not just an afterthought: for example, if you walk to work, or to the bus or subway, time yourself. Try to lop a few seconds off each day's walk. Similarly, if you're an apartment dweller, use the stairs instead of the elevator. But if you live several flights up, don't try to climb too many on the first day, Shephard warns.

That's an important point about exercise — if you're not used to it, you should start gradually and build up. Sporadic exercise may just shock the system and do more harm than good.

But a regular systematic program will reduce fat in the body, build resistance to disease, reduce stress and the risk of heart attack — and just plain make you feel better. It won't necessarily take off weight, but flab will become muscle.

If you're over 40, or if you have high blood pressure or are overweight, consult your physician before embarking on an exercise program. It's not a bad idea to do that anyway, because the doctor can help prepare a tailor-made schedule. He'll tell you what kind of exercise he thinks you need.

The secrets of effective exercise, says Dr. Shephard, are motivation and continuity. You must want to be, and stay, in good physical shape, and you must find a form of exercise you can enjoy and stick with. This means that it should be an everyday occurrence. Fifteen to 30 minutes a day won't necessarily make an athlete out of you, but over a period of time the benefits will be apparent; you'll feel and look better, and all your faculties will be sharper.

Thoughts

From The Living Bible

"Anyone who wants to be my follower must love me far more than he does his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, or sisters — yes, more than his own life — otherwise he cannot be my disciple. And no one can be my disciple who does not carry his own cross and follow me. "But don't begin until you count the cost. For who would begin construction of a building without first getting estimates and then checking to see if he has enough money to pay the bills?"

Luke 14:26-28
Evangelical Fellowship of Canada

You... ..and the law!

Question - Since I was laid off a couple of weeks ago, I've had trouble paying my rent. My landlord says that unless I pay up soon, he can take my furniture and television to make me pay. Is this true?

Answer - It used to be true that a landlord had a right of distress. This meant he could take your furniture without a court order and hold it until you paid.

But that is no longer true. The Landlord and Tenant Act in Ontario was amended in 1968 to abolish this right. So while you may still be evicted, your furniture is safe from the landlord's seizure.

Genuine
GM Parts

Is a substitute for the real thing worth it?

In the automotive business, you can find substitute parts and accessories for the real thing. And you can get service work cheaper at certain places.
But why suffer for less than the original?

All parts are not the same.
There can be a big difference in quality and performance.
If you're not using genuine GM parts on your GM car, you probably are short-changing yourself.

GM parts meet all original equipment specifications and requirements. They are built to provide maximum performance and durability. In short,
GM parts are the real thing.
At BERT JONES LTD. Come get the real thing.

We use genuine GM parts and accessories. Our factory-trained technicians are specialists in GM cars, and use the latest most up-to-date equipment.
If you need repairs, we'll give you fast, efficient service. If you'd like to do it yourself, come to us for GM parts.
Whichever way you choose - be assured our parts and accessories will be the real thing.

Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

To pour coffee from a three-pound can into a smaller canister without spilling, cut a triangle from the outer edge of a plastic lid from an empty can. Pour through this and have no more spills. Save the cut one for pouring and the intact one for sealing what is left in the can.

Door stops are great wall savers but they are a nuisance when vacuuming, when the baby finds them fun to stand on or likes to amuse himself by wiggling the spring type. Eliminate such problems by installing stops on the wall near the top of the door rather than on the floor. The walls are saved and the annoyances avoided.

A pencil-marked photo can be cleaned with a kneaded artist's eraser. Place the photo on a firm, flat surface and work eraser until it is warm. Then do not rub, just press to pick up the graphite marks. If pencil grooves go through to the back, turn photo face down on a clean white paper to prevent scratching the surface. Use a pencil eraser to press these marks flat but be careful not to rub.

Strictly Fresh

Beyond the blue horizon, there lies a lot of smog.

Foresight is the attribute of a wise man; hindsight the attribute of a pretender.

A bargain is too often something the store wants to get rid of.

Carrying a torch for an old flame, believe it or not, is self-extinguishing.

Potato salad is one-part potatoes and three parts nostalgia.

Tell us the best joke we ever heard, and we'll ruin it completely before we tell it again.

Couples who say they have never quarreled in 30 years of marriage are either unique or suffering from temporary amnesia.

Now that it's summer, we recall that it's never "spring time" at the local oasis.

Fix-It Tip

When a window shade suddenly snaps up, then the spring is too tight. Roll the shade to the top, take the roller off the brackets, unroll about halfway down and replace.

If you move a shade to a narrower window, work on the fixed-pin end of the roller. Remove the fabric and cut the end of the roller where the fixed pin is.

Then put the pin back and replace the end cap.

Trim the shade by stretching it on a flat surface, measuring, marking and cutting against a straight edge. Refasten to the roller with tacks, staples or tape.

If you lubricate, use graphite, not oil, since oil picks up dirt and gums.

In the Kitchen

By KAY PEACOCK

Delicious, nutritious and economical with today's prices, not too many foods fit into that category. Baked Beans do. Once almost the staple food of our country, they can be a good occasional meat substitute. Serve with salad, rolls and milk for a complete meal.

No more the overnight soaking and long cooking of temperamental dried beans. Every cookbook today contains recipes using canned beans.

I found this recipe for Feather Buns slipped into a cookbook of my grandmother's. Titled, "Jean Irvin's" feather buns, it is written in real ink, and has to be an old recipe.

Who ever you are, Jean Irvin, I thank you regularly for these light, easy to make yeast rolls.

BEANS AND POP

- 1 can pork and beans, 48 oz. size.
- 1 medium onion chopped fine
- 1/4 cup molasses
- 3 tbsp. pickle relish
- 2 tsp prepared mustard
- 2 oz. sliced mushrooms (optional)
- 1 10 oz. tin lemon-lime soda pop

Combine beans and all ingredients but the mushrooms in a casserole and bake uncovered in a 325 degree oven for 1 1/2 hours.

Stir in mushrooms and bake for another 1/2 hour.

For an added taste treat, fry half a pound of bacon until crisp, and crumble into the beans just before serving.

Serves 8 to 10 hearty appetites.

JEAN IRVIN'S FEATHER BUNS

- 1/4 cup shortening
- 1/4 cup white sugar
- 1 cup scalded milk
- 1 envelope yeast dissolved in 1-8th cup warm milk
- 1 egg
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 2 1/2 cups flour

Beat well, and let rise in bowl until double. Stir down with a spoon. Drop into muffin tins half filled. Smooth top with spoon dipped in warm water. Let rise again until doubled in bulk...takes about an hour. Bake in hot oven for 20 minutes.

Student's Breakfasts ...

When students return to school each September, our attention turns to their clothing needs and curriculum. But how about their dietary habits and nutritional needs?

For instance, going to school without breakfast is like canoeing without a paddle. Students who don't breakfast (remember: the word means breaking the fast) suffer the mid-morning slump, thus slowing down considerably by 10 a.m., and affecting performance and well-being.

Students in their "perilous teens" should be specially encouraged to breakfast. Too many teenagers, always in a hurry, skip this most important meal of the day, then choose snacks loaded with fats and sugar for a quick pick-up.

Parents can help by setting good eating examples, avoiding monotonous and unattractive breakfast foods. Keep on hand fruit and juices, hot or cold cereals (bran flaked, rolled oats, shredded wheat, etc.), milk shakes, enriched bread and rolls, cheese, cold cuts, etc. Use attractive dishes and place mats to enhance the atmosphere, if possible.

The Rt. Rev. W.H.H. Crump, retired Bishop of Saskatchewan, dedicates a new church sign following anniversary service.

100th

The 100th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of St. Paul's Anglican Church in Marmora by the Brethren of Masonic Lodge 222 was celebrated by St. Paul's congregation on Sunday, September 8 with special services.

Rt. Rev. W. H. Crump, retired Bishop of Saskatchewan, paid a first visit to Marmora and was the special speaker at the morning service. He also assisted at the Choral Eucharist which featured songs by a trio of three girls, Lor March, Carol Shannon and Kate O'Connor and trumpet and coronet accompaniments by Alan Lummiss, Ken Smith and the rector, Rev. John Lombard. A reception was held in the church hall following the service so that everyone could meet Bishop and Mrs. Crump.

Deer season cut down due to smaller numbers

A dwindling deer population has forced the Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources to cut down the deer hunting season in this area.

W. H. Cantelon, district manager, has informed this newspaper that "the deer population is being watched very close. The shorter season is aimed at reducing the annual kill by 50 per cent."

"If the one week season does not help reduce the decline, then further restriction will be imposed."

Many hunters, last season, reported expeditions as dismal failures.

"We didn't even see a deer let alone shoot one."

Many blame the decline on the increasing wolf population; some also blame dogs.

Receives ODC Loan

Campkin's Camp Inn, on the Quin Mo Lac Road, will be receiving a low-interest government loan from the Ontario Development Corporation in the amount of $97,000.

The loan is to be used for additions and improvements to the campsites and surrounding area.

Two hundred more campsites will be added, 100 of them with hydro and water. Two miles of roads will be constructed and a sand beach and picnic area will be developed on Bass Lake.

Two new pools will be installed - an entrance pool and an adult pool which will be open to the public with full swimming instruction next year.

A recreation centre is also planned.

In the kitchen

Kay Peacock's home wouldn't be without this spread!

Whenever someone comes along who does not DO DOWN fruit, pickles or relishes, they always ask the same question. Do you really do this because you save money or because of the convenience and the enjoyment you get out of it? I don't really know the answer, because perhaps we do serve them more often than we would if we had to buy them. But every once in a while a recipe comes along that is relatively inexpensive to make and is something we buy and use regularly anyway. This sandwich spread is almost a necessity in our house. So I decided to see just what it cost. Assuming you have all the vegetables in your garden, except for the peppers, and allowing $2 for plants and seed, 50 cents a pound for sugar, and $1 for the salad dressing. Including all ingredients, this recipe costs about 35 cents a pint. A saving of at least 35 cents a pint on the current store price. Not Bad. I call it Liz's sandwich spread, because it was Liz who gave me this recipe.

6 lbs green tomatoes
6 green peppers
3 sweet red onions
9 medium onions
three-quarters cup salt
3 1/2 cups sugar
1 cup flour
2 tsp mustard
1 tsp turmeric
1 tsp celery seed
2 cups white vinegar
4 cups boiling water
4 cups salad dressing

Chop all vegetables finely, sprinkle with salt and let stand three hours. Drain well, pressing out excess liquid.

Combine dry ingredients, add vinegar and boiling water. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly until smooth and thickened. Add vegetables and leave over low heat about 15 minutes, stirring.

Remove from heat, add salad dressing and mix well. Seal in sterilized jars.

Makes 16 to 18 pints, and can be cut in half.

Sports

It's all even at 1-1

The second game of the ORSA Squirt A Finals played in Madoc Saturday afternoon evened the series at one game a piece as Eldorado came from behind to score three runs in the seventh inning to win 11-10.

Eldorado jumped into an early 5-1 lead after 2 innings, picking up 4 runs in the second on a single by Sedgwick, a walk to Robinson, a single by Johnston and a grand slam for Shaw.

This all went down the drain in the fourth as Caledonia struck for six runs as the locals committed 4 errors and gave up two hits.

Going to bat in the seventh down 10-8, they waited out 3 walks to Sedgwick, Robinson and Donaldson, Shaw singled to drive in 2 runs and tied the score, with 2 out Shaw on third, Bateman drove a single throw to the second baseman to score the winning run.

Randy Gray went the distance on the mound for the winners striking out 6, walking but 1. Clark toiled the game for the losers striking 0 and walking 10.

Third and deciding game of the Ontario Championship will be played in Claremont next Saturday.

Line Score:
Eldorado 142 100 3 11 10 10
Caledonia 013 600 0 10 4 2

Gray on the mound took the loss striking 5 and walking but 2. Marmora pitcher struck out 3 and walked 5.

Eldorado UCW entertain two guests

At "Valley Croft" on the beautiful afternoon of September 5th, fourteen members of Eldorado U.C.W. and two visitors met at 1:30.

The president, Mrs. H. Chambers began the meeting with the reading of Psalm 84:1,2 and 4. and the devotional period continued with the singing of the hymn "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind" both as hymn and prayer. Two readings were used from "The Upper Room", Mrs. S. Sandford reading Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 followed by meditation and prayer. Mrs. Hogate read Isaiah 32:2 with commentary and prayer concerning the work of laymen and women as "a covert from the tempest" of life.

A duet by Mrs. Floyd Blackburn and Mrs. Lee Johnson "The Lord is My Shepherd" accompanied by Mrs. A. Ketcheson at the piano, was greatly appreciated.

The offering was taken and dedicated by Mrs. Chambers, who then conducted a brief business period. Minutes and treasuries report for July were read and approved and a number of items were discussed.

Miss Minnie Moorcroft was leader for the study of The Arts of the Apostles as told in the little book, "Good News in Action" in Today's English Version presented to each of us for Christmas 1973 by Mr. and Mrs. Sedgwick.

Because of this study being forwarded a few months not giving time for much home preparation we read and then discussed each of the first two chapters, reading with a different narrator for each chapter and each member reading a part spoken as e.g. Jesus, Apostles, two men in white, Peter, Joel and David, two prophets of Old Testament quotations.

Healthy discussion ensued on this and also points later in the book. Suggestion - For further knowledge of questions brought up about the Holy Spirit read Paul's understanding help in I Corinthians chapters 12 and 14.

Minnie used for closing a daily reading section for September 1973 Upper Room, quoting Psalm 24:1 - "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein." with meditation and closing prayer "O God, when I consider the heavens, the star, the planets, this earth, I stand in amazement and in awe of your power and glory."

The roll call was a one sentence sermon, one of the short ones being an old Chinese Proverb - "Pray for a good harvest but continue to hoe."

Hostess Alma Moorcroft and co-hostesses, Lois Blackburn and Helen Johnson then served lunch which we enjoyed with the accompaniment of pleasant social chatter.

News of the past from the files of the Madoc Review

"Miss Madoc" comes fourth

"Miss Madoc" owned by Kel and Newt Kincaid came fourth in a field of seven boats in the CID class boat races at the Exhibition Monday.

Harry R. Haacke, a former well-known resident of Deloro was found dead with a bullet wound in his head at his summer home at Crowe Lake at noon on Friday. Mr. Haacke had been alone at the cottage since Thursday. The discovery was made by his wife when she returned from Toronto, where she had gone the day before to drive her daughter and family home from a vacation at Crowe Lake. A .22 rifle was found beside the body and Dr. R.S. Parkin, of Marmora on examination, pronounced that death had occurred about six hours previously. It is thought that in despondency Mr. Haacke had taken his own life. Mr. Haacke was about sixty-five years of age and had a large circle of friends who sincerely regret his death. He had been the manager of the Deloro Trading Company store at Deloro for several years until failing health forced him to give up the position a few years ago. Since then he and Mrs. Haacke have resided in Havelock and spent the summer at Crowe Lake. Besides his wife, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. William Kerr (Dorothy) of Toronto and two sons, Harry of Norwood and Ewart of Toronto.

The Madoc Legion Softball team defeated Tweed in the best of three series and will now meet Ajax in the next round of the Legion playoffs. Madoc won the first game of the series, the second one was tied and Madoc won the third game 24-9, played in Stirling last night.

Weather interfered with Labor Day Sports at Crystal Beach Madoc. Sunday sports were well attended with Grant Baker of Tweed taking first in the boat races. Bob McCoy of Madoc with his "Hi Vel" took second. Bill Derry's "Jitterbug" from Madoc took third. Carl McCoy's "Green Hornet" from Madoc took fourth and Bill Crawford's C-4 from Madoc took fifth. Charley Murphy from Belleville made his 75th jump at Crystal Beach. This was really a delayed jump. Weather didn't permit him to make another jump on Monday. The ball game for the Dr. Nickle trophy was won by the Madoc Juniors. Boat Trips, airplane rides and picnicing were some of the activities that day. Sunday, September 10, the Canadian National Waterskiing champs will be back at the beach for their last appearance of the year.

15 years ago

On Thursday, September 3, 1959 at the farm of Frank Jeffs, Stirling, RR 3, a very successful Land Judging Competition took place. This was something new in the Agricultural education field for juniors; 35 from the district competed. Instruction was given during the forenoon. Following lunch in the Stirling Community Hall the group proceeded to Mr. Jeff's farm. The structure and texture of soil had to be considered on four different farm locations. An explanation of what crops were the best adopted was also required. The Moira River Conservation Authority awarded two lovely silver trays to the high junior and senior. The junior winner was Allan Johnston, RR 1, Harold and the senior winner was Cyril Shaw, Eldorado. Mr. Ken Ray, Stirling Machine Shop Dealer, gave a large pail of grease to be presented to the second place individual. The winner was Joe Hagerman, RR 1, Harold. Sidney MacDonald and Clinton Nesbitt, local Agricultural Representatives were in charge of the competition.

In Belleville General Hospital on Monday, September 7, 1959, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Carman; a sister for Bill.

News from Centre Hastings Secondary School

By GARNET PIGDEN

No ghosts in this spirit club

The Spirit Club does not practice the bewitching art of summoning ghosts and demons from the underworld. Its members are solely devoted to a promotion of school spirit. Headed by Ron Hotchkiss, the club will organize special school events.

Future events being planned are a Twenties Week, a Hat Day, a Dress-Up Day, and teachers vs students games.

The purpose of such events is to spark interest into students who have found the regularity of school becoming monotonous, and to promote a closer student-teacher relationship.

The club is presently working on an initiation policy, a teachers vs students baseball game scheduled for Sept. 18 and is preparing a number of skits to be presented at the awards assembly Sept. 25.

Members of this club are Dave Forestell, Allan Hyde, Carol Anne Burris, Cathy Smith, Cathy Kincaid, Lorna Gunning, Ray Murphy, Sally Courneyea, Sharon McCrea, Garnet Pigden, Janice Way, Marie Kergy, Larry Green, Mike Champagne, Cheryl Rashotte and a number of others.

Lots of activity at C.H.S.S. Clubs

Students were able to enroll in any of the clubs offered at CHSS last Friday. A few of the vast number of clubs are Math, Science, Table Tennis, Art, Camera, Christian Fellowship, Hot Rod, Drama, Sewing and Crafts, Motorcycle Training, Driver Education, Cadets, etc. All students are encouraged to join one of these clubs, thereby making constructive use of our activity periods. If the activity periods are not used wisely they may be eliminated.

Tizzy

"I forgot to put on lipstick. Do I look TOO horrible?"

Hopefully, this box will last!

The school cafeteria received its second juke box last week. For those students who remember, last year our first attempt of acquiring music in the cafeteria was foiled. A few destructive, immature students took it upon themselves to vandalize our music machine, thus depriving those of us who appreciated listening to it, the right to do so. We sincerely hope that such an atrocity will not repeat itself this year. It is a shame, that so few can spoil it, for so many. This year's juke box is under the jurisdiction of the Outer's Club, a club that specializes in outdoor activities such as hiking, canoe trips, etc. The Outer's Club will reap the profits of the juke box from the business provided by the students. Current records will be placed in the juke box every seven days.

Common room set aside for students

This year C.H.S.S. will receive a common room for students. The purpose of this room is to allow the students a place to relax, do homework, listen to music or converse with friends in a tranquil atmosphere. Students will make use of this area during activity periods, spares and lunch hours. The enrollment this year is down by approximately 100 students. Because of the decrease in attendance, Room 149 has been made available for use as a student lounge. The common room committee is presently drawing up a set of rules to govern this area and is preparing plans for furnishing it.

Provincial police investigate accident

The Madoc and Kaladar detachments of the Ontario Provincial Police are investigating a two car accident that occurred Saturday, 5 1/2 miles west of the junction of Highways 7 and 41.

Police report that both vehicles involved were considered write-offs, with three people taken to Belleville General Hospital.

Nine-year-old boy is killed

A nine-year-old RR 1 Corbyville boy was killed Thursday when his bicycle darted in front of a car 4 1/2 miles north of Highway 401 on Highway 37.

Allan Merritt was pronounced dead on arrival at Belleville General Hospital. Driver of the car was Garnet Smith, 47, of Marlbank.

Police report that no charges will be laid as a result of the accident.

Man swerves to miss bear

An Eldorado man told police he swerved to miss a bear on the highway Thursday, lost control of his car and entered the north ditch of the road, striking a rock.

Stanley Stein, 18, was uninjured in the accident but damage to his car was estimated at $500.

Isaac James Hetherington, Toronto, 66, was reported in serious condition; Ann Thompson, RR 1, Cannington, 20 suffered head and facial injuries; Gordon Thomson, also of Cannington, was treated and released.

But dog missed!

A tractor-trailer, loaded with rides belonging to Conklin Fun Shows, swerved to miss a dog last week, going out of control and ending up in the roadside ditch.

Damage to both the vehicle and its contents was estimated at $3,000.

Driver of the truck was John Henry Adams, 20, of Paris, Ont.

Steam shovel slides off tractor

A four ton steam shovel slid off the back of the tractor-float on which it was riding Monday, blocking traffic for over an hour before it could be cleared from the highway.

Driver of the truck, James Chiasson, told police that the chains holding the shovel had come loose.

The shovel, belonging to a Toronto company, was able to drive back onto the truck under its own power.

The accident occurred four miles north of Tweed on Highway 37.

C.H.S.S. Viewpoint

By Garnet Pigden

The students of Centre Hastings Secondary School, having become familiarized with their rotating timetables and having successfully located the assigned classrooms, are settling down to another year of knowledge.

There is a strong possibility that initiation might be held at school this year. If this ceremony is permitted, it will cover only one day and a strict set of rules will be enforced to protect the freshmen from any abusive tactics some irresponsible grads may wish to inflict. It can be a rewarding experience for all who participate in the festivities with common sense.

A word of warning to those students who drive to school and to those joy-riders who may not go to school but race through our parking lots. The chances of running over a student or colliding with another car are astronomically high. If seen speeding or making any unnecessary noise with your vehicle, your licence number will be taken and the police notified.

With the addition of a common room and another juke box at Centre Hastings this year, the students will have a chance to prove their maturity. It will be, to some degree, a test of our good sense and training. We have the opportunity to make these additions successful. Unfortunately, the innocent will suffer from any damage inflicted by those students who are unwilling to accept the few good things we acquire. However, the final decision on whether or not our conduct is worthy of these desirable items, (dances included) will have to be with us, the students.

Rules and regulations are not abundant at CHSS in comparison with other institutions of education. This speaks well for our student body as a whole. It means that the young people attending our school are responsible people who take wholesome pride in their school, and who are seriously seeking an education. Remember, a school is only a building. It is the people in it that give it a "good" or "poor" reputation.

By participating to the fullest extent in all aspects of school life and by taking pride in our school and in what we may do, our stay at CHSS will be a regarding and memorable experience in our lives.

VALUABLE AID

Activity, teachers, listings available

Lists of teachers and the activity in which they have an interest are available to all students. Many of these activities are held during activity period, but others are conducted after school for those who are able to use the late bus service.

Last year, the intramural operated on the House System with House winning the intramural championship. The following intramural activities will be offered this year: tug-of-war, volleyball, basketball, floor hockey, flag football, track and field, and shooting.

CHSS will compete at the interschool level in the following areas: Boys - football (junior and senior), volleyball (junior and senior), basketball (midget, junior and senior), wrestling, gymnastics, track and field, soccer (junior and senior) golf, hockey and badminton.

Girls - basketball (midget, junior and senior), volleyball (midget, junior and senior) gymnastics, track and field, badminton and curling.

Credit system allows student flexibility

The credit system at Centre Hastings High School allows each student considerable flexibility in the selection of his program (of studies). Through an individual timetable and subject promotion, each student can maintain continual progress in those subjects in which he is successful.

A credit can be defined as the successful completion of a course, based on work covered over 110-120 hours during the school year. While most subjects are offered on a one-credit basis, exceptions occur in courses where additional time is needed. For example, a number of courses in the Technical Department involve two credits. A mark of at least 50 per cent is required to earn a credit.

Each student is permitted to select courses best suited to his interests, abilities and goals for the future. A credit system with individual timetables allows him to work at his own level in appropriate courses. A Secondary School Graduation Diploma will be granted to any student who has completed satisfactorily a minimum of 27 credits, provided that certain required areas of study have been included. If it proves necessary, a student may count fifth year subjects to make up the minimum number of credits. However, these particular subjects may not be counted towards the Honor Diploma.

A Secondary School Honor Diploma is granted to a student who has earned at least six credits (six courses) in subjects given at the five year level.

Milk Pasteurization
The pasteurization of milk is a compulsory public health measure, necessary to prevent the spread of tuberculous and other diseases. In most parts of Canada government regulations make it mandatory.
Regrettably, many health-food fanatics suggest that pasteurization destroys vitamin C, calcium, vitamins B1 and B2, enzymes, etc. On the contrary, no loss of calcium occurs, and the loss of other vitamins is minimal.
Many other claims are made by health-food enthusiasts that cannot be substantiated. For more information on the subject, obtain copies of "Food Handling" from your local branch of the National Health and Welfare Ministry.

Good 'n bad in reflections

by Bill Smiley

Summer reflections: some good, some bad. First we'll give the good news, then the bad, as the current crud goes. If you don't know what crud means, ask your family doctor. Or somebody else's family doctor, if you don't trust your own.

A family doctor is someone in the family. That means you try to get everything for free. So if he tells you that you have a little headache once in a while, take an aspirin, relax, you know you have a monumental brain tumour.

On the other hand, if you take somebody else's family doctor, beware. He'll probably tell you that you have a possible brain tumour, that you should relax, and take plenty of aspirin.

Well, I hope that takes care of that. I didn't really mean to get onto doctors. Grand chaps, actually.

But I have a lingering resentment against a R.A.F. doctor who insisted on giving me my annual anti-tetanus shot (a dirty great injection in your shoulder) the night of our passing-out party, from a training course on Spitfires.

I told him I had a bad back, a wrenched knee, a toothache, phlebitis, and pneumonia.

He said, "Jolly good", and sank an elephant needle into my shoulder.

I had the satisfaction of seeing him stunned by a coffee cup hurled from behind the piano. It was thrown by our C.O., who, despite the fact that he'd had his pants pulled off and beer poured liberally over his lower torso, was still very much alive.

And a moment later, I had the satisfaction of seeing the C.O. caught right between the eyes by a dinner-plate flung by a New Zealander who said, "Whizzo" when he saw the Commanding officer fall to his knees, trouserless.

This was in the good old days, when it was more or less expected that you'd smash up the mess before you graduated.

It wasn't vandalism, in the modern sense. You had to pay for everything you broke, and you took full responsibility for what you'd done.

It was a wild, free, careening sense of destruction, perhaps based on the sense that you were destructible and were going to be destructed. Perhaps that is what makes young people tick today. If they tick. Some of them don't even seem to be wound up, let alone tick.

As usual, I've gone far from my theme. The good news and then the bad news. It's like a Newfie or Polish joke, both of which I despise.

Good news? It's not raining; the town engineer is not going to cut down 21 maple trees until he tries again next year. My grandbaby is a little devil. One of my students wants to come around and talk. My wife called me "Dear" today. My bursitis is not hurting too much. There's a rose bed in the backyard which hasn't produced a rose in three years, but this summer has a fine touch of green (three baby elms). I don't have a heart condition, though I'm not sure about me liver. The electric storm last night didn't hit my oaks. The plumber gave us a big bag of fresh beans out of his garden.

Bad news? My grandbaby is a devil. He and his mother are living in a dome (no lights, no water, no electricity, no toilet). I left an $8.95 library book out on one of the lawn chairs yesterday and it rained all night. There's a nest of yellowjackets up in the roof and the roofer will quit, after he's taken half the shingles off. Two stings will do it. The boys who are going to do the painting will all have fallen off a ladder and broken their right arms by the time they're ready to go.

My mistress has the mumps. My doctor has a needle. My wife has a tongue. My cat is heterosexual. My daughter is cheerful. My son is cheerful. (This is bad news because it means they are both going to make a touch).

All in all, it's a pretty average summer, so far.

Ma Bell wins first round Morton Shulman fightin' back

Ma Bell, true to her word, has ripped out the Queen's Park telephone of Dr. Morton Shulman, NDP member of the legislature for High Park.

"I wasn't going to let the works in," Shulman said in an interview.

"But it was either rip out the phone or disconnect the whole NDP switchboard. I figured that would get our leader Stephen Lewis upset."

The wrath of Bell fell down on Shulman a week ago when he refused to remove from his office phone an automatic dialer, equipment that dials at the touch of a button numbers entered on it. Bell refuses to permit the dialer on its phones.

So with his office phone gone, Shulman says he'll have to use a pay phone near his office.

"Bell hasn't heard the last of me. I'm appealing the removal to the Canadian Transport Commission," Shulman vowed.

Free drug program lights up Queen's Park hot line

Irate doctors, confused patients and angry pharmacists lit up a Queen's Park hot line with more than 2,100 calls after the government's free drug program went into operation.

Notices explaining the program were received by thousands of Metro residents in the mail.

The program offers free drugs to eligible senior citizens, people on the province's guaranteed annual income system and those on family benefits.

Pharmacists receive a $2.05 fee for dispensing any of the 1,200 prescription drugs on the drug benefit formulary.

Even though people are confused right now, the Ministry of Health's director of drugs and therapeutics, Allan Dyer, says everything will soon be cleared up.

Ontario is going to prod U.S. for faster lakes cleanup

Ontario will ask the federal government to prod the new U.S. administration for faster progress on the cleanup of the Great Lakes, says Environment Minister William Newman.

A Canada - U.S. agreement on a cleanup project was signed by former president Richard Nixon during a visit to Ottawa in 1971, but he later impounded funds for the U.S. portion of the agreement.

Newman wants Ottawa to press President Gerald Ford's administration for action on reducing effluent discharges into the lakes.

Newman also wants more co-operation from Ottawa in setting regulations for vessel wastes. He said he would also like to see federal regulations on drilling operations in the lakes.

Newman said Ford may be more receptive to join cleanup efforts. "He's from Michigan. He may be more understanding about the matter of the lakes."

Here's the Answer

Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

Can't find that elusive meat skewer to pierce the Sunday roast in order to insert the thermometer? Use a nut pick.

Occasionally during heat waves, plastic articles atop wooden furniture weld themselves to the surface. To remove the unwanted plastic without fear of damaging the table, use ordinary paste wax.

To prolong the life of men's felt or straw hats, apply one or two coats of clear nail polish on the stitches inside the headband. This keeps body oils and perspiration from seeping through to the felt or straw.

If you prefer bakery bread to the usual store-bought variety already sliced but dislike opening and closing the wrapper to cut enough slices, try cutting a few slices at a time and storing them in sandwich baggies. Do this until you have sliced the entire loaf then insert each baggie in the original wrapper. When you need only a few slices at a time, all you need do is open the wrapper and take out one of the baggies.

If you have accidentally scorched an article of clothing while ironing, try covering the area with cornstarch and let it stand for a few minutes then brush off.

Fix-It Tip

To keep household tools in good shape, use a file now and then on them to keep the cutting edges sharp. Before storing spades and hoes for the winter, sharpen their edges now to avoid preliminary work next spring.

Pruning and grass shears generally have a coating of sap from the plants that have been cut. Since this is corrosive, clean it off the blades. Kerosene is all the solvent you need. Use steel wool on stubborn spots and on rust spots.

Oil the working parts and coat with oil after sharpening. Check wooden handles for rough spots, splinters. Sand them smooth and then coat the wood with linseed oil to keep it from drying out. Small cracks can be glued and clamped.

Short Takes

Longest Toll Road

World's longest toll superhighway is the Governor Thomas E. Dewey Thruway. This 559-mile expressway connects New York City, Albany, Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo, N.Y.

Have Limited Range

The trees with the most limited range of distribution are the big trees in the Sierras and the redwoods along the northern coast of California. Both trees are found nowhere else in the world.

KINGSFORD, Maurice - In memory of a dear friend who passed away September 3, 1973.

Just when life was brightest,
Just when your years were best,
You were called from this world of sorrow,
To a home of eternal rest.

Always remembered by Gordon Govier.

KEENE - In memory of William L. Keene who passed away September 16, 1973.

Tis the human touch in this world that counts.

The touch of your hand and mine,
Which means far more to the fainting heart.

Than shelter and bread and wine.
For shelter is gone when the night is o'er,
And bread lasts only a day.

But the touch of the hand and the sound of the voice

Sing on in the soul away. The Keenes.

KERNOHAN - In loving memory of a dear brother, Cameron, who passed away on September 13th, 1972.

Our thoughts are ever with you,
Though you have passed away;
And those who loved you dearly
Are thinking of you today.

Ever remembered by Jean and Scotty.

McFARLANE - In loving memory of a dear mother, Mildred Pearl McFarlane, who passed away two years ago, September 8, 1972.

God gave us a wonderful mother,
Far dearer than silver or gold,
He fashioned her smile out of sunshine,
He moulded her heart with pure gold.
He needed a new star in Heaven,
A beautiful light to shine,
So out of this world of sorrow,
He chose this dear mother of mine.
Always remembered by daughter Josephine and son-in-law Lyle.

McFARLANE - In loving memory of a dear grandmother, Mildred Pearl McFarlane, who passed away two years ago, September 8, 1972.

A wonderful grandmother laid to rest,
For each of us she did her best,
Her place on earth no one can fill,
We miss her now and always will.
Always remembered by grandchildren Carol and Dave Pollard and David Campbell.

BONTER - In loving memory of our dear son, brother and uncle, John Bryson, who died in his plane September 10, 1969.

To some you may be forgotten,
To others a part of the past,
But to us who loved you, and lost you,
Your memory will always last.
Always remembered by Dad, Mother, Gerald Barbara (Whelan), Beverlee, Diane, Stephen, nieces Lois and Rachel and nephew John.

BONTER - In fond memory of a grandson and nephew John Bryson, who died suddenly Sept. 10, 1969.

Not dead to us who loved him,
Not lost, but gone before,
He lives with us in memory,
And will forever more.

Ever remembered by Grandmother, Aunts and Uncles.

MOFFATT - In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, Gordon, who passed away September 9, 1968.

He has gone across the river,
To the shores of evergreen,
And we long to see his dear face,
But the river flows between,
Someday, sometime we shall see
The face we loved so well,
Someday we'll clasp his loving hand,
And never say farewell.

Sadly missed by daughter Jean, son-in-law Frank and family.

LAVENDER - In loving memory of a dear sister, Lamoine, who passed away on September 17th, 1971.

God looked around his garden,
And found an empty space,
And looked down on earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you,
And lifted you to rest,
God's garden must be beautiful,
For He takes only the best.

Sadly missed by Jean and Scotty

LAVENDER - In loving memory of a dear daughter, Lamoine, who passed away on September 17th, 1971.

Our hearts still ache with sadness,
Secret tears still flow,
What it meant to lose you,
No one will ever know.

When we are sad and lonely,
And so many things go wrong,
We seem to hear you whisper,
Cheer up and carry on.

Each time we see your picture,
You seem to smile and say,
Don't cry I'm only sleeping,
We'll meet again some day.

Treasured forever in our memories - Mom and Dad.

TODAY'S HEALTH

Heart attack major death cause

by David Woods

Thirty or 40 years ago there wasn't much we could do about killer diseases — either avoiding them or curing them. If you contracted polio, say, or tuberculosis, your best hope was hope itself.

But since those days drugs have brought many once fatal diseases under control. Heart attack, once comparatively rare, is now the major cause of death in adults. In fact, the statistics are disturbing:
the incidence of heart attack has increased by 60 per cent over the past 15 years. And it's still rising.

Unlike the diseases that killed our grandparents, though, heart attack is largely preventable. Not entirely, of course: sex, age and heredity must all be considered.

Men are more liable to heart attack than women; older people more than younger; those with a family history of heart disease more than those without. Nevertheless, lifestyle is the important factor affecting risk: heart attack is strongly influenced by things that people do — or don't do. The individual has a great deal of control over his risk of suffering an attack.

For example, gaining weight places strain on the heart, so reducing weight reduces risk. Since most people add pounds because they eat too much or exercise too little — or both — the solution is readily apparent: sensible diet (including reduced amounts of cholesterol) and regular exercise. Similarly, since cigarettes have also been clearly implicated as a factor in heart disease, cutting down on — or cutting out — smoking will further help your heart.

What causes heart attack is a build-up of fat in the coronary arteries; this gradually makes them narrower until, eventually, blood can't flow through.

Sometimes a heart attack comes without warning. Often the warning signs include shortness of breath, tightness in the chest, discomfort in the arms, dizziness, or fatigue.

Patients who may be risking attack are advised not to respond to these signs by engaging in strenuous activity. It's a natural reaction, in these circumstances, to want to test the heart. But that could trigger an attack: the proper course is to rest — and call the doctor. If the pain is severe, call him immediately.

Although 40 to 50 per cent of first attacks are fatal, tremendous strides are being made in rehabilitating patients who survive coro-naries. Moreover, techniques are being perfected in coronary artery bypass surgery.

Nonetheless, heart attack is one area of health where an ounce of prevention really is worth a pound of cure.

Eldorado wins ORSA squirt title

The Eldorado Expos have won the ORSA Squirt A Finals by beating Caledonia 9-7. The series had deadlocked at one game apiece and was decided on the Claremont diamond.

Caledonia fielded a good hitting and fielding team, while their pitching was their weakest point.

Eldorado went to work on this and capitalized on runs in the first, both being walked in.

Caledonia got one of these back as Gray gave up a walk forcing in their first run.

In the third, Eldorado added five more to take a 7-1 lead on three walks, an error and three hits.

The score was 9-4 going into the last inning.

Three more runs by the Caledonia team left the score at 9-7.

$1,000 damage

A single car accident Thursday, one-half mile south of Tweed, has resulted in an estimated $1,000 damage to a car driven by Mary Veronica Hannah, 24, of Smiths Falls.

According to police, she had claimed that dense fog at the time of the accident had caused her to miss an intersection, travelling across the highway and striking a number of rocks and trees.

There were no injuries in the mishap.

A free dance

The Merry Mixers square dance club held a free dance for beginners Sunday, and will have a second free night September 18. Club dances will be held Wednesdays at 8 p.m. at the Madoc Public School, with registration being held September 25.

Oppose camp

The Tudor and Cashel Council held a special meeting recently to deal with the proposed Boys' Harbour Incorporated Camp on Cashel Lake.

A motion was made that the council object to the proposed camp being located in the ministry of natural resources camp in the midst of a heavily populated tourist area. The council requests that this camp not be located in this area. Copies of the council's objections were forwarded to Premier Davis, Hon. Leo Bernier, Hon. R.T. Potter, MPP Clarke, MPP Rollins, MPP Robert Nixon and MPP Steven Lewis.

Number of transfers at Madoc OPP detachment

A number of transfers have been taking place this month in the Madoc detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police.

Corporal B.L. Burchat, who has been at the detachment for the past five years, is being transferred to the Sharbot Lake detachment, with a promotion, on September 23.

Corporal Don MacNeil will be replacing Corporal Burchat, coming from Brechin, Ont.

The Royal Canadian Legion Zone 5 F held its annual Drumhead Service Sunday at the village of Wilberforce. Two bands and more than 200 Legionnaires attended the service. Guest speaker was Don Wilson, Past Provincial President of the Legion.

Following a parade through the community, prayers and speeches were conducted in the Wilberforce arena.

Madoc fair bigger and better

More in 1974

"Something more in '74."

This might well be the theme of the 1974 edition of the Madoc Fall Fair, running Saturday September 28 and Sunday, September 29.

The Madoc Agricultural Society has been hard at work bringing more to the fair in Madoc.

For the first time, the fair will be open both Saturday and Sunday with two full days of exhibits, amusements and entertainment.

A long list of firsts will be featured this year. For the first time, Canada's largest Midway, Conklin Shows will provide midway excitement for the younger set. Conklin needs no introduction to those who have attended the CNE and the fair directors have been assured a bigger and better midway than ever before at the fair.

Saturday will see most of the usual exhibits of a good old-fashioned fair, including the local stage show, this year featuring the Land O Lakes Cruisers backing up a program of contests and local talent.

An official opening by Canada's minister of agriculture, Hon. Eugene Whalen will kick off Saturday's entertainment.

Saturday night will see the ever-popular horse drawing match back again and the midway will be in operation for those not so interested in the drawing match.

Sunday afternoon brings a full entertainment package to the fair, with the midway, a light and saddle horse show, a dairy goat show and beef cattle exhibits.

The feature attraction will be the George Hamilton IV show on stage.

This popular gentleman, the host of his own Canadian TV show is probably the first really big name to appear in this area. He will be joined by Lynn Jones, a very talented Country and Western entertainer in her own right and a regular star on the George Hamilton IV show.

These stars will be backed by a top name stage band for a 1½ hour stage show on Sunday.

Admission to the fair will be the same as last year.

But ministerial objects to Sunday opening

The Madoc Ministerial Association is concerned over the Madoc Fall Fair being carried over into Sunday activities this year, and points out the concern in a letter to Francis Tobin, secretary, Madoc Fair Board.

It reads as follows:

At various times in the past several years, concern has been raised in the Madoc Area Ministerial meetings over the growing commercialization of Sunday.

At our September meeting this issue was raised once again because of the decision to extend the Fall Fair through Sunday, September 29th. This open letter grows out of our concern to preserve Sunday as a meaningful day for worship, rest and family life.

The first point we wish to make clear is the reason for our concern. We believe that

Good old days

You can help bring back the good old days.

Since their arrival in the Madoc area last Spring, Faye Nobels and her husband have often been pleased and amazed by long time residents, who have shared forgotten skills and stories of the past. Such tales, while a help and an inspiration to the newcomer, are a source of joy to those who lived them.

"It is our hope that these bits of history will not be lost to our children and others," Mrs. Nobels told the Madoc Review today. And as such, she is going to help Maurice Goulah and Carol Parauik compile a book based on first hand accounts of "the good old days" in Madoc, Eldorado, Queensborough and the surrounding areas.

"Anybody interested in helping by sharing some of their memories, forgotten crafts or by showing us old pictures or artifacts can call me at 473-4003 so we may arrange to meet," says Mrs. Nobels.

People may also get hold of Carol Parauik at the Madoc Review office at 473-4194.

"Materials will be carefully treated, and returned unharmed."

The book is to be ready sometime in 1975.

The annual appeal of the Lester B. Pearson Peace Park will be held the last week in September.

The appeal is for funds to maintain and develop the peace park as a free park for all who wish to come. This year a special appeal is being made in order to complete the Mother's Shrine and Tower of Hope, on behalf of all mothers who lost sons in the last two wars.

No admission charged for peace is for everyone. Each year an annual Festival and Memorial Service is held to which veterans, international speakers and the public are invited. This would not be possible except for the support of persons of good will. The park does not receive a government grant of any kind, but the government gives an income tax deduction on all contributions up to 20 per cent of income.

The park is the only one in Canada set aside as a peace park during Canada's Centennial. Since the park was dedicated, over 10,000 persons, many of them school children, have visited the park.

The park is a practical demonstration of what local people can do by working together. Everyone works on a voluntary basis and all money donated is used to improve the park.

Contributions may be made by sending these to the Lester B. Pearson Peace Park, RR 3 Tweed or at the Bank of Montreal in Tweed or the Toronto-Dominion Bank in Madoc. An official receipt is sent for all donations.

IMPORTANT NEWS FOR NEW CAR BUYERS.

Some 1975 cars require the use of more expensive unleaded gasoline which is not readily available.

We want you to know...

All Ford of Canada 1975 carlines can be refueled with any gasoline, at any pump, at any station, anywhere. This also means you can select the gasoline price that suits you best.

In order to meet the new Canadian exhaust emission standards, some 1975 cars will be equipped with catalytic converters. The catalytic converter is an emission control device that requires the use of more expensive unleaded gasoline. Because this fuel is not readily available throughout Canada, all engines (with the exception of one, the optional 2.8 litre V6) for all 1975 lines of Ford of Canada cars have been designed to meet the new Canadian exhaust emission standards without requiring catalytic converters. This means they can be refueled with any gasoline — unleaded, premium, or the lower priced regular. Thus, when you're driving a '75 Ford or Mercury line of car you can select the gasoline price that suits you best.

Ford of Canada believes that this will mean a lot to motorists who will not be able to find unleaded gasoline available in their normal driving and fuel-shopping patterns. Particularly those who travel in rural areas where availability is substantially less than major urban centres.

"ECONOMY EXTENDERS"

In addition to convenience of fuel availability and choice, there are a number of features engineered into every 1975 Ford of Canada car line that contribute to fuel economy:

- Steel-belted radial ply tires that extend tread life and reduce rolling friction for better gas mileage.
- Solid state ignition that eliminates the points and condenser and improves fuel economy over long periods due to a more stable spark plug performance.
- Improved engine tuning on many engines that results in increased fuel economy and performance.
- Optimized rear axle ratios that contribute to less engine wear and lower fuel consumption by proper matching to load and use requirements.

See your nearest Ford or Mercury dealer today. He will be glad to discuss everything about the refueling convenience and operating economy of the '75 Ford and Mercury cars including the extended service intervals that contribute to reduced maintenance requirements and, therefore, lower operating costs. It can mean a lot to you.

It isn't a full account, but it was a great day

By M. MOORCROFT
(with the help of others)

Unlike Luke, one of the Gospel writers, this writing will not give a full account of all these matters which are important to us.

When considering all the disheartening news being continuously kept before us, someone should write a report, to quote from Luke as in the New English Bible, "to give authentic knowledge about the matters of which we have been informed" in our churches, in order to keep the finer things before the public's eye, as well as sports, politics, graft, crime and so forth.

Our good fortune in procuring the services of the Eldorado United Church Sunday September 8, was twofold, in that Rev. and Mrs. W.M. Sedgwick and family were also able to be present.

Of course, we hear fine sermons each Sunday and I expect Mr. Sedgwick would be the first to admit something like "If I don't step on someone's toes occasionally, I must be standing still."...He hasn't done much "standing still" in the 10 year's work in Queensboro and Eldorado.

Dr. Davis' morning Scripture lesson was Proverbs 3:1-12; with verses 5 and 6 for his text and the sermon - "Making Use of What We Know." Mr. Davis pressed the case for going forward in the life of faith even where knowledge is incomplete. He noted that the world is full of mysterious phenomena which we use, even though we do not completely understand the forces at work. For instance, we use electricity though no one completely understands what it is. There seems to be no hesitation in using that power.

In the world of Nature we see the birds finding their way in migration; the homing pigeon flies home with unerring instinct; seeds grow straight upward no matter where they are planted.

Can we not rely on a Creating Power which has given instinctive wisdom to the world of nature, to guide us also? Surely man, of all creatures, is not meant to live without guidance from God.

The evening service Scripture lesson was II Kings:1 - 14...Dr. Davis analyzed the preoccupation of our age and noted our unwillingness to accept simple prescriptions that might help. This spirit he noted, is similar to that of the Syrian general Naaman, who came to Elisha for healing from leprosy, long ago, but was displeased with the simple prescription that he should bathe seven times in the Jordan River for cleansing.

Dr. Davis noted two simple prescriptions from the Bible (1) You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and love your neighbour as yourself - Luke 10:27 and (2) Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you will be saved - Acts 16:31.

Dr. Davis suggested that the world may regard these as aspirin prescriptions with little meaning, yet if we try them we shall find them effective.

In closing he noted that there is mystery at the heart of life and especially there is mystery in the way personality develops under the influence of God, but in spite of mystery the growth is a reality and a possibility for everyone.

At the 11 a.m. service Eldorado Junior Choir, with Mrs. Lee Johnson directing with her daughter Joanne playing a guitar, sang sweetly "Put Your Hand in the Hand..."

Accompanied by Mrs. Allan Ketcheson at the organ, the adult choir of eight ladies and five men sang "With the Voice of Song" bringing a message in music.

In the evening we were favoured with two numbers by the Queensboro Choir. With Miss Katharine Burnside's leadership, they sang two inspiring and pleasing numbers unaccompanied, "Come Holy Spirit" and "Lonesome Valley."

Remarks of appreciation were heard about a welcome evening with opportunity once again to sing an evening hymn.

Minor hockey registration coming

With the ball season drawing to a close it is time once again to begin thinking about hockey.

Minor hockey registration will be held Friday and Saturday, September 20 and 21. The last registration date will be Friday, September 27.

Registrations will take place at the arena. Those interested are asked to bring their completed forms with them.

A list of names and fees appear elsewhere in this paper.

This year minor hockey will face an increase of 400 per cent in rental fees. With this in mind registration fees have also been forced to rise. Even with this increase, hockey officials will have to raise close to $3,000 to meet its commitment.

Costs include ice rental, goalie equipment, referee's fees, sweaters and affiliation with the Ontario Minor Hockey Association.

Anyone interested in coaching, managing refereeing or helping in any other way is asked to attend a meeting at the Madoc Public School on Monday, September 23 at 8 p.m.

Times have changed

During the boom period experience in the 1960's and early 70's, Chambers of Commerce have concentrated on growth and expansion, vying with one another for new industries and capital expansion, says Doug Storey, president of the Tweed Chamber of Commerce.

Times have changed, Mr. Storey continues, with real economic growth coming to a standstill in the second quarter of this year. With inflation and interest rates at the highest levels in history, business expansion is slowing up. At the same time, the business community is faced with rising costs. As a result, Mr. Storey feels that the Chambers of Commerce should be spending more time and energy in helping the present community. During the good years, there has been a lack of supervision in management, now in a time of expensive money, management practices will have to be reviewed.

With this thought in mind, the members of the Tweed Chamber of Commerce, have arranged with the Industrial Development Bank of Canada, to hold a Management Seminar of interest to small business owners and managers in the Tweed Legion Hall, on Thursday, September 26th, beginning at approximately 9 a.m.

A registration fee of $10 will be charged, and this will include the cost of the noon lunch and social hour at the close of the seminar. Additional information may be obtained from the Industrial Development Bank, 797 Princess Street, Kingston, Phone (613) 549-1531.

Attendance is invited from the Tweed, Stirling, Madoc, Marmora, Kaladar, Arden, Cloyne, Northbrook Flinton, Denbigh and Plevna areas.

Mr. Storey goes on to say that the Chamber of Commerce should do all that it can to help existing businesses. Cost, he says, is the first problem, but not the only one. Do you run your business, or is it running you? he asks or do you simply react to situations instead of planning ahead to deal with them. These are some of the problems that the September 26th seminar is designed to discuss.

The most benefits, Mr. Storey feels, will be derived from the free exchange of ideas and information between those conducting the seminar and those attending the one-day meeting.

A grant for $900 has been made to the Napanee Region Conservation Authority by the Ontario ministry of natural resources for the acquisition of land and easements for reconstruction of Laraby Rapids Dam.

Announcement of the grant was made this week by the minister, Honorable Leo Bernier and Dr. W.J. Nuttal, MLA, Frontenac-Addington.

Asleep at wheel?

An RR 8, Kingston man apparently fell asleep at the wheel of his car last Monday, causing it to go out of control, striking a total of six guide posts.

Lawrence F. Harvey, 19, was not injured in the accident but damage to his car was set at $1,000.

The mishap occurred one mile north of Stirling on Highway 14.

Anytime he found himself in a tight spot, he left.

MP seek area citizens' concerns

What have residents of the Centre Hastings area concerned about?

Is it the serious and sharply increasing rate of inflation? The question of the dumping of eggs? The problem of the grain handlers strike? The level of support for dairy farmers? The Canadian presence in Cyprus and the mid-east? LIP programs? Immigration? Government spending?

Jack Ellis, starting his second term as the Member of Parliament for the Hastings riding, wants to find out just what people are thinking on these subjects, and others.

And in order to find out, he is making an extensive tour of the riding just prior to the opening of the new Parliament.

He will be making the tour from Monday, September 23 to Saturday, September 28, and will be in this area during the latter half of the week.

Thursday, September 26 will have him in Madoc from 9 to 12 noon, in Ivanhoe from 1 to 2 p.m., in Moira from 2 to 3 p.m., in Corbyville from 3 to 4 p.m., in Cannifton from 4 to 5 p.m., and in Belleville (Sir Winston Churchill School) from 7 to 9 p.m.

New cancer society lodge opens Sept. 25

The Canadian Cancer Society's new Quinte-Thousand Island Lodge, the sixth of its kind in the province, will be officially opened by the Hon. Pauline M. McGibbon, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, in a brief ceremony at the School of Nursing Kingston General Hospital.

It will take place September 25 at 4 p.m. - Madoc and Marmora area residents have helped in building the lodge through work and donations in the local areas.

An inspection of the facilities by Her Honor and invited guests will follow at 12 O'Kill Street where the new lodge for ambulatory patients is contained within two floors of the former nurses' residence.

The new facilities will accommodate 17 ambulatory patients and will provide attractive single bedrooms, dining room, comfortable television common room, a library and a beauty salon.

Old Madoc Road coming under fire

The old Madoc Road is coming under the fire and wrath of citizens having to use the road to go to and from their homes.

In short, the road is in very poor condition - so bad, in fact, the Townships of Marmora and Lake has placed a sign on the route saying Bad Road - Use At Own Risk. Shirley Wilman says the sign was put up about eight weeks ago.

"The road is terrible," she says. "And I stress 'terrible'."

Joseph Davidson, another resident, notes the township will "probably get around to fixing it up before it freezes up, but where does that leave us now? The road is fairly well travelled and I wouldn't be surprised to see someone go off the road and into the ditch trying to avoid breaking an axle."

The township council, according to residents, has said the road will be fixed, but that material to do same isn't available at the present time.

Sand has been dumped into various pot holes, but washes out with the rain, leaving even bigger holes for residents to contend with.

Madoc man wins poultry class

Ervine McGuire walked off with 19 firsts, nine seconds and seven thirds for a total of 35 ribbons.

Glen Hinds of Stirling was second with 13 firsts, 15 seconds and nine thirds.

Elmer and Doug Wood of Madoc took three firsts and two seconds.

Deseronto town council is asking the Ontario government to update a survey of senior citizens taken in 1971 as preparation for the construction of 20 to 30 senior citizen housing units in the town.

VIEWPOINT

If you call 'em lazy you're in for a surprise!

By Garnet Pigden

Those adults (parents perhaps) who condemn the youth of today by describing them as lazy, irresponsible kids who live just for the present and not for the future, may be in for a surprise.

On October 4, a number of these so-called lazy selfish kids will be displaying their diligently constructed chariots with names of sponsors decorating these virtuous vehicles. They will participate in a race that has no prize money. Why? Why will these students do something for nothing? Actually each and everyone participating in Chariothon '74 will gain from it. They will not receive a materialistic reward, there is no personal financial gain for those participating, but the benefits lie in self-satisfaction.

The knowledge that one is contributing to the betterment of other less fortunate people can be the most soul-satisfying thought one can obtain, there is no feeling greater than the sensation of learning that the funds we have raised are helping to make mobile someone much like ourselves who desires the joys of life, but because of physical limitations is unable to do so. Indeed it is a worthy cause.

We ask the support of the citizens of this community to assist these students in Chariothon '74. To give is better than to receive.

Caesar to ride again!

Caesar conquered the streets of Madoc on October 26 of last year as a Roman Triumph of Chariots pulled by human horses paraded through the town of Madoc for the first "Chariothon" to be held in Hastings County.

The two-wheeled vehicles ranged from out-houses to the go-carts of public school students to chariots resembling those of Caesar's day.

Students and staff solicited sponsors by selling advertising space on their chariots to local businessmen, citizens and service clubs. The total receipts amounted to $1,915.40, all of which went towards handicapped adults.

Once again this Friday October 4 Caesar and his troops will roam the streets of Madoc in a colorful parade of chariots. This year we not only welcome CHSS Centurions to participate in the event, but also encourage local businessmen to enter a chariot.

All gold and riches collected from sponsors will be turned over to the Rehabilitation Foundation for the Disabled. The success of last year's Chariothon depended on good organization, wide participation, by both staff and students and effective salesmanship.

With the date of the Chariothon only a few weeks away it is advised that interested persons start gathering materials for their chariots which can be made out of anything. Also, forms will soon be printed so that sponsors can be collected as soon as possible.

More rules and general information may be received by calling the school at 473-4251 and asking for Mr. Goodchild, Betty Ried or Garnet Pigden.

Students being grouped

Students presently enrolled at Centre Hastings Secondary School and all students subsequently enrolled shall be grouped on the basis of age, sex, mental and motor abilities into five major divisions of equal size, known as houses. An attempt is also made to evenly distribute names alphabetically.

Students remain in the house assigned for the duration of their school career at CHSS. Similarly, where possible, house chairmen, teachers and similar officials remain with the allotted houses until they retire or resign from the staff of the school.

Each house is subdivided into nine smaller units of 20-30 students under the sponsorship of a teacher. These represent the conventional home-form referred to simply as rooms, and consist of students from Year 1 to Year 5.

Students are assigned to houses under a draft system. A draft board for each of the elementary feeder schools is made up of Year 1 students who previously attended that school. Each board consists of ten students, one boy and one girl from each of the five houses.

These Year 1 students, by following a set of rules, draft the elementary students to their houses for the following September.

Scorpio House, purple
Gemini House, blue
Sagittarius House, red
Leo House, orange
Libra House, green.

Designated room being limited

The Senior Student Common Room Committee decided last week that, considering the size of the designated room, it would be limited to students enrolled in years 4 and 5.

The room will be opened from 9:10 to 3:15. The year 4 and 5 students may have access to it in their spares, but at lunch hour it is restricted to year 5 students only. Senior students wishing to use the Common Room must contribute the sum of $1 and will receive a stamped card signifying their membership.

The money collected will go towards furnishing the area, providing music, decorations and a coffee pot.

The Committee will be responsible for the cleanliness and the conduct of the students in this area. Members on this Committee are Lorna Gunning, Allan Hyde, Jim Gaylord, Ray Murphy, Debbie Rashotte, Sally Courneyea and Mike Champagne.

The common Room will be a success this year and future years if used within the rules and with common sense.

Bus loads from Madoc heading to film!

A couple bus loads of Madoc area people will be going to Belleville next week to see "Time To Run", the family styled picture being talked about by so many people in the area.

A motion picture about a family, about listening, about the silences between people, the unspoken moments, and the moments of anger that don't really accomplish anything, the film closely follows today's life style that sees the family unit being attacked from every side, torn apart and fragmented.

The picture openly offers the reality of Jesus Christ as an answer to the human dilemma, and it is hoped that thousands of people will see a part of themselves in the film, and that families that see it together will be brought closer together in real understanding and communication.

Bus bookings for Thursday, Sept. 26 and Friday, Sept. 27, are being made, and advance tickets are on sale at $1.25 up to, Sept. 21. Tickets after that date will cost $1.75.

Tickets and information locally may be obtained from the Anglican Rector, at 473-4217 or the Wesleyan Methodist Manse at 473-2451.

The buses leave Madoc at 6 p.m. for the 7 p.m. showing.

A BUS WILL be leaving Madoc for the Billy Graham film, "Time to Run", in Belleville, Friday evening, Sept. 27. Please call 473-2451 or contact Mr. Mack, 135 Elgin St., before Saturday, Sept. 21, for reservations and tickets. Bus trip is free of charge. First come, first served!

Clergy protest

certain essential human values are being lost as Sunday is secularized and the worship of God is neglected. We believe we are losing our Christian Sunday, not by design, but by default. We feel that the increasing tensions of family life are often related to the common disregard of Sunday as a day of spiritual renewal.

We believe the words of Scripture "that man does not live by bread alone, but by every word of God." We believe that we neglect this truth at our peril.

In regard to the Fair we want to say we appreciate the volunteer leadership and hard work that goes into making our fair the success it has been in the past. We realize that often this kind of effort goes completely unrewarded, without credit or even thanks.

We feel that if we criticize, as we do, the decision to have the fair open on Sunday, we must at the same time commend those who give so much time and effort to make the fair a success.

Regarding the decision to have the fair open on Sunday, we want to say that we appreciate the difficulties faced in trying to run the fair on Saturday only. We are aware that a one day fair faces limitations of time and space. We realize that a better midway could be set up with a two day operation to defray costs. We realize also that behind the decision to remain open on Sunday is the general trend of the times. Other fall fairs, boating regattas, car rallies, snowmobile races are commonly held on Sunday.

However, through we realize the practical arguments in favor of having the fair open on Sunday, we want to make clear that we are opposed to the fair, or other similar events, or unnecessary commercial interests operating on Sunday.

We believe that we shall lose more than we shall gain by the commercialization of Sunday. We trust that very serious consideration will be given to this matter in setting dates for the 1975 Fall Fair.

On behalf of the Madoc Area Ministerial, signed:

Rev. W. Sedgewick, chairman; Mr. L. Mack, secretary; Rev. P. Murphy, Rev. D. Heard, Rev. J. Thompson, Rev. E. Hawkes and Rev. L. Hart.

Hostess

Mrs. G. Herche was hostess for the September meeting of the Queensboro branch of the women's Institute, held in the WI hall Wednesday evening.

The roll call was answered by "What Can We Do To Improve the WI for the Future" was answered by 18 members and seven visitors.

It was decided to send an exhibit to Madoc Fair.

A program for the year 1912-13 was shown by Mrs. John Thompson and given for the Tweedsmuir Book. There were also some pictures of Queensboro in the past.

It was decided to get a Women's Institute sign made to be placed in front of the hall. The program was in charge of the education and cultural activities convenors. There were two guest speakers.

The first speaker was Mrs. Bernard Barry, who displayed some wall plaques and pictures of mosaic art done in glass. She also gave a demonstration on how this was done.

Mrs. Ken Rollins of Peterborough was the second speaker.

She showed slides of the Western Provinces, Alaska and the Yukon, which she had taken when on a trip there last summer.

Both speakers were presented with gifts at the close of the program.

The meeting was closed with the Queen and lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants. A social time was enjoyed by all.

Kaladar

Our summer holidays are over again for another year. Children are back to school and the days are nice, but the nights, quite cool.

Sorry to hear about Miss Maxine Head having a car accident. She spent a couple of weeks in Kingston Hospital but, glad to hear, is home again.

Gloria McCluckie is in Belleville in Queens Convalescent Hospital. Hope she has a speedy recovery and will be home soon.

Kaladar's senior ball team played at home against Maberly Mets, and won 4-0.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tryon of Kaladar motored to Oshawa Saturday to attend a wedding.

An accident on Highway Seven about three or four miles west of Kaladar occurred Saturday afternoon sending three or four people to hospital. Both cars were a write off.

Another 3.6 miles of 41 Highway South was supposed to be let out last week for construction which residents of Kaladar and vicinity will certainly be glad of because this stretch of road is certainly rough and crooked.

Kaladar Community Club has purchased the school and grounds at Kaladar for a Community Centre.

The California Cuties were at Kaladar and played ball before a lovely crowd in spite of the rain.

Miss Olive Tryon has moved to an apartment at Flinton Corner. Miss Dorelene McCluckie has too.

"Time to run"

Time To Run, a new film that is a mixture of problems and solutions, is scheduled to open at Centennial Secondary School, Belleville, Wednesday, September 25.

The full-length feature filmed in Eastmancolor, by World Wide Pictures, is scheduled to run through September 28. Filmed on location in the Southern California area, Time To Run stars Ed Nelson, Randall Carver, Barbara Sigel, Joan Winmill and Gordon Rigsby.

Nelson, perhaps best known for his portrayal of Dr. Rossi in TV's Peyton Place, plays Warren Cole, a hard driving success-oriented industrialist and scientific engineer who, because of over-involvement with his work, has failed to communicate with his wife Fran, played by Joan Winmill, or their son Jeff, played by screen newcomer Randall Carver.

Feel effects of inflation

All of us have felt the effects of inflation in our pocket books, but when it effects our habits and pleasures, it is even more painful.

Theo's Home Bakery of Marmora has been supplying home baked goods to Kincaid's I.G.A. for 10 years, and more recently, Devolin's Grocery Store.

But last Saturday was their last delivery to Madoc, leaving the village without fresh bakery products for the first time in many, many years.

Theo Balvers, who bought the Marmora bakery in June of 1964, has been a regular feature in Madoc since then.

"But with the increase in the cost of ingredients, plus transportation costs, it is just not practical to continue supplying this area," he notes.

Adding to the problem is the loss of his baker, his son, who is moving to a Toronto area Dominion Store.

And, notes Mr. Balvers, it is "almost impossible for a small store to compete in the hiring of a new baker."

The store, in Marmora, will remain open.

Viewed purely as entertainment, Time To Run is a suspenseful story of Jeff's attempts at sabotage in the nuclear generating plant, conceived, designed and managed by his father. Jeff, feeling strongly that the plant is a threat to the environment, puts his feelings into action.

Viewed on an emotional level, Time To Run is the deeply moving drama of the conflicts that are tearing a family apart - conflicts that develop between husband and wife, and between father and son. In an attempt to find freedom from the ever-growing hostilities, Jeff takes to the road hoping to discover some meaning to his confused life.

The film is also a story of friction between Jeff and his girlfriend, Michelle, played by Barbara Sigel. She has discovered a spiritual dimension in her life, and this aspect is very confusing to Jeff, who has little time for "a God who would allow war, hatred and suffering on earth." But his life is shattered by an avalanche of personal problems, and he finds himself at a Jesus people gathering with Michelle, where he glimpses the possibility of a new life-style based on love and understanding.

Regardless of what the viewer draws from the film, Time To Run is a film that can help strengthen love relationships between people. It's a film that was made for families to attend together.

Miss Grace Gowdy honored retirement

Beautiful summer flowers decorated the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whiteman when a number of the employees from Albert College gathered to spend an enjoyable evening with Miss Grace Gowdy of Thomasburg who has recently retired from the college.

Grace has spent most of her life in employment at Whitey Ladies College, Albert College, Ban Righ Hall Kingston and back to Albert College for the last 12 years.

About 9:30 Grace was presented with a corsage and asked to take the seat of honor while Mrs. Doxsee, Administrator of Albert College, read the address.

Grace was presented with an alarm clock, flasher lantern, radio and coffee mug set. Although taken completely by surprise,

Life memberships bestowed on two

Life memberships were bestowed on two members of the Madoc Chapter 143 of the Order of the Eastern Star as the chapter held its first meeting of the new season last week.

Receiving the honors were Sisters Margaret Derry and Elsie Franks, both of Madoc.

New members were also welcomed to the fraternal organization.

Twass peppers, not onions

If you were making the sandwich spread from last week's column, and wondered about the three sweet red onions, you were right to wonder. It should have read three sweet red peppers. We apologize. However, if you used the onions it will not affect the recipe noticeably. The red peppers were mainly for color and the onions will give much the same result.

Grace thanked the ones present for their thoughtfulness and invited them to come and see her at her home near Thomasburg.

After some pictures were taken a delicious lunch was served by the host and hostess and all enjoyed the lovely evening.

4-h girls elect new officers

The first meeting of the Cooper and Remington 4H girls clubs was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Stein on September 14.

Newly elected president is Louise Bud, vice-president is Darlene Ferguson, treasurer Bev. Stein, press reporter Lynda McCoy.

The club's name is the Cooper and Remington Beautician's.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Elwood Graham on September 21 at 9:30 a.m.

For the roll call, everyone is to bring a picture that resembles yourself.

Some easy recipes garden vegetables

By KAY PEACOCK

I don't know whether it is the fact that I like pickles or because I've inherited just a little bit of frugality from my Scottish ancestors, but I like to use up every little bit of vegetables from the garden.

Looking at the rows of gleaming jars filled with jams, pickles and relishes gives a great deal of satisfaction too. The Tomato Dillys use the little green tomatoes that are left when frost comes, and they taste surprisingly like regular dill pickles. The cucumber pickle is another very old recipe and lets you use up the cucumbers that have turned yellow. It is delicious with cold meat, and easy enough for a beginner to do. Autumn Relish is a sort of a collection of tag ends and leftovers.

GREEN TOMATO DILLYS

Pack in sterilized quart jars very small firm green tomatoes with stems on. To each quart add 1 clove garlic, 1 stalk celery, 1 hot green pepper (optional) and a good size head of dill.

Combine two quarts water, one quart cider vinegar and one cup salt.

Cook for five minutes, pour over tomatoes in jars and seal. Store for at least three weeks before using.

RIPE CUCUMBER PICKLES

Pare ripe cucumbers, scrape out seeds cut lengthwise in inch strips. Lay in vinegar and water over night. Place in kettle, cover with vinegar. To each quart of vinegar allow 3-4 cup white sugar, one tsp. of whole cloves, a small stick of cinnamon, 1 tsp. of whole pepper, and a very little salt. Boil until a fork will pass readily through them, which will be about 20 minutes. Seal.

AUTUMN RELISH

Two cups cabbage, two cups green pepper, one cup sweet red pepper, four cups cucumber, two cups onion, four cups ripe tomatoes, one-half cup coarse salt, four cups sugar, two tsp. dry mustard, one-quarter tsp. turmeric, one tsp. paprika, six cups vinegar.

Chop all vegetables and mix together in a large crock. Sprinkle with salt, and let stand overnight. Drain well, pressing out all liquid. Add sugar, spices and vinegar. Cook over medium heat one hour or until thick. Stirring occasionally. Seal in sterilized jars.

Dianne Whiteman marries Glen Siegel

St. Andrew's Presbyterian scene of lovely wedding

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, St. Catharines was the scene of a lovely wedding on Saturday, August 31 when Dianne Gail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carman Whiteman and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Whiteman, Madoc, and Glen Christopher, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.P. Siegel, St. Catharines were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony.

Rev. W.K. Palmer, assisted by Pat Rose officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a sheer gown with an underlay of net. Venice lace formed a Victorian yoke and lace ruffles at the high neckline and cuffs of the puffed sleeves. Small pink rosebuds dotted the bodice. A coronet of rosebuds held her lace-edged mantilla veil. She carried a cascade of pink rosebuds and miniature pink carnations.

The matron of honor, Debbie Bruegeman, wore a gown of cherry blossom pink polyester crepe. The bridesmaids, Joyce Whiteman and Norah McGuire of St. Catharines and Eleanor Pierrynowski of Welland, wore gowns of mint green polyester crepe. All wore headdresses of hand crafted flowers made of the same material as their dresses, and carried white baskets of carnations and daisies.

The best man was Aron Gampel of Niagara Falls. Ushers were Michael Jacobs of Toronto, Jamie Chapman of Ottawa and Allan Whiteman of St. Catharines.

The reception was held at the Royal Canadian Legion hall, Branch 138, Merriton.

The couple will live in Windsor.

Alan and Bernice Armstrong, Madawaska St., Madoc, enjoyed a three week vacation in Europe this summer.

But where's the moms?

"Why don't more mothers take advantage of our services?"

That's the question Beverly Jones, a public health nurse with the Hastings and Prince Edward Counties Health Unit, is asking herself these days.

The unit runs child health clinics in Madoc and Marmora every month, but only a few mothers show up to take advantage of the county provided services.

The clinics give immunizations against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, polio, red and german measles.

They also give smallpox vaccinations to older children and travellers.

"And a child's general health can be checked, and any problems discussed," notes Nurse Jones.

ONE FOOT IN THE FURROW

I've turned chicken?

By BOB TROTTER

"Hey you!" said the city-dweller. "You call yourself a farm writer but you've turned chicken on this egg business. Are you afraid to write about those three million eggs that have been destroyed?"

"Or do you just write about the good side of farming?"

Now, this city-dweller knows nothing about farming and even less about marketing boards. In fact, all he knows is the drill press at which he works eight hours a day and that his grocery bill is getting higher every week.

And that is unfortunate.

Few marketing boards have been formed in this country without a great deal of controversy. The tobacco board comes to mind immediately and those who were involved in the formation of the Ontario Pork Producers Marketing Board back when they called themselves hog producers can easily remember the tough days when organized marketing was in its infancy.

The public can be forgiven for not understanding the trials and tribulations of the Canadian Egg Marketing Agency. I've been trying to follow it closely and I've got a few questions to ask, too.

But this corner has consistently supported marketing boards and the questions begging for an answer in this case will have to go unasked until the national egg marketing agency has had a chance to prove itself.

It is unfortunate, though, that the egg agency got into these problems at a time when inflation is eating away at the confidence of the entire nation. The public could be excused today if they stoutly opposed the formation of any other national marketing agency. And the dissolution of the egg agency.

However, the aim of any marketing board is to keep the production of the product involved in a viable state. A stable industry with guidelines for producers which provide reasonable returns on labor and investment must, in the long run, be beneficial to both the farmers and the consumers.

Without such production guidelines, more and more farmers are going to get out of business. They are driven into it by ups and downs that no other industry can withstand. When too many producers leave the land, the ability of Canadians to feed themselves becomes weakened.

The egg marketing agency was formed because egg producers had faced five years of disastrously low prices. The agency was formed to find a way to retain this aspect of agriculture in Canada. Those in favor of such an agency knew at the beginning that tremendous problems were ahead of them. They knew they were sailing on troubled waters.

The mouthings of Beryl Plumptre, chairman of the food prices review board, haven't helped the agency's public image.

And now we have that bright, young Montreal lawyer, Andre Ouellet, Canada's minister of consumer affairs, along with the Canadian Consumers Association, right in there beside Beryl, tearing the guts out of the egg agency.

Until Prime Minister Trudeau managed to get a comfortable majority in the House of Commons, rifts within the cabinet were minimal. Now that he has his majority, the Cabinet fights are coming out in the open.

It seems to me that Eugene Whelan is going to have to fight more battles for farmers. His fights — and I'm sure he had them — remained inside the Cabinet until recently. Now, he will have to do his fighting right out in the open.

But Whelan's critics and the critics of either provincial or national marketing agencies should hold fire for a while until the egg agency gets this whole thing straightened out. Given a fair chance, I'm sure the people in charge will make the plan work.

The aims of all marketing boards are still valid: stability in the market place so that producers can get a reasonable return on labor and investment.

In the end, if these aims are met, the buying public will reap the benefit.

I say give them a chance before going off half-cocked.

Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

If you tired of trying to scrub away the built-up grease and grime that accumulates in the sliding doors of your bathroom shower, try installing a curtain rod inside the stall and hanging a shower curtain. This allows water to drain off the curtain instead of stall's glass doors which eventually gums up the track.

When plastic flower arrangements are crying for a good cleansing, pop them in the dishwasher. This does the job much better than you could by rubbing with soap and water and it saves time as well.

Don't throw away that extra bit of dough when making pies. Roll it out into a circle and place a peeled, cored apple in the center before sprinkling a little sugar and cinnamon over it. Fold the pastry around the apple then wrap securely in foil and store in the oven. After you have accumulated enough for the family, bake them in sugar syrup and you have apple dumplings from something you would've disposed of.

If you'd rather not write names and addresses of friends in your little black book or find handwritten addresses take up too much space, snip their return address labels from envelopes sent you and paste them right into your book.

To correct a typing error when you have no eraser handy, stick a piece of ordinary household transparent tape over the error but be sure to leave one end of the tape loose. By quickly whisking the tape away, you will remove the error without smudging or tearing the paper.

Fix-It Tip

A pneumatic door closer should be used on every storm door. A spring in the tubular closer starts the door closing when it is wide open. Pneumatic pressure cuts the speed of the door just before it is fully closed.

If you have a storm door without a closer, install one. If you have a closer, learn how to adjust it as the weight of the door changes depending on whether you have a screen or a storm insert in use.

Adjustment is done by way of a screw or a movable knob. You will have to experiment and make adjustments gradually.

Pass the Salt

Ancient wrecks currently under excavation in the Zuider Zee are so saturated with salt water that they must be continually doused with fresh water while excavation progresses. Once in the museum of ships at the digging site, the wrecks are regularly showered until the timbers have been desalted and then are sprayed with a preservative.

This babe just would not wait!

The birth of a new baby is always exciting but Betty Lapalm and Dave Foley can tell you just how exciting. A baby girl was born to Lamoine and Dave Foley last Wednesday morning. With some help from Dad and Grandmother, the baby was successfully delivered at home. When they were preparing to leave for the Belleville Hospital, it had become apparent that birth was imminent. Returning Lamoine to the house, Dave, with the assistance of Betty, delivered a healthy 9 lb. ½ oz. baby girl. Dr. Berry, Tweed reports that they did an excellent job and that mother and baby are doing fine.

Marmora man found dead at mine

Sandy Russell Herman, 21, of Madoc St., Marmora was found dead in his car as it hung over the side of the Marmorator Mining Company pit Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Herman apparently drove through the steel link fence at the mine sometime Saturday night. The wreckage was spotted by workmen after they noticed someone at the edge of the pit near the lookout tower. Normally the fence kept people away from the edge so the workmen went up to investigate and found the fence broken for about 100 ft. The car was in such a position that it could not be seen from above or from below unless its presence was known.

The motor of the 1965 Pontiac was found at the bottom of the 640 ft. below sea level pit but the body of the car came to rest about halfway down, at the 395 ft. level. FireChief Cec Nealand two other members of the Marmora Volunteer Fire Department assisted workmen in pulling the car to where the body could be released.

Mr. Herman was the son of Mrs. Joan Ellis of Marmora and the late Jack Herman. He had been working in Oshawa at General Motors but came home on weekends.

Mrs. Ellis reported that her son had had an argument with his girl friend on Saturday but there was no indication that he was despondent. She had called the O.P.P. at Madoc to be on the lookout for him after finding his wallet on the front lawn about 1 p.m. Sunday.

36 farmers on a tour

Thirty-six young farmers and potential farmers from across the province will be participating in the 23rd annual Junior Farmer Soil and Crop Management Tour, September 23 to 27.

This year, the tour begins at Guelph with visits to Canfam and the soils and crops research departments of the Ontario Agricultural College. The following day the group heads east for a three-day comprehensive study of soil and crop management systems on a practical basis in the counties of Durham, Hastings, Northumberland, Prince Edward and Peterborough.

Twenty farms will be visited, as well as a fertilizer plant, several food processing factories and experimental cropping operations.

The concluding day of the tour will be spent at the International Plowing Match being held this year near Georgetown.

Fire causes extensive damage

A fire, believed to have started in the wiring of their electric stove, was responsible for extensive damage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lajoie, R.R.2, Marmora about 1:30 Sunday morning. The fire is still under investigation.

While Mr. and Mrs. Lajoie were attending a banquet at the Legion Hall at the time their son Jamie, 13, was watching T.V. in the living room when the kitchen suddenly lit up with flames around the stove.

Jamie grabbed a mop and tried to put out the fire but it had spread to a nearby cupboard and other articles in the vicinity. Going to the telephone he called his grandmother, Mrs. Fred Lajoie, who lives nearby, and the Marmora Fire Department. On arrival Mrs. Lajoie and Jamie removed some of the furniture from the living room while the fire spread rapidly through the kitchen and upstairs.

Damage was estimated by Fire Chief Cec Neal at $2000, which is covered by insurance.

No objection area bylaw

The Huntingdon Township Council has voted to register no objections to the restricted bylaw of the Townships of Marmora and Lake.

In other business, the council was informed on building permits issued to date, voted that Harold Thompson be appointed Huntingdon Township representative to the Stirling Area Building Committee and tabled a request for the closing of a portion of road allowance between the Townships of Huntingdon and Madoc.

MADOC REVIEW

Andy Capp, of course, needs no introduction. A long time favorite of comic followers the world over, the antics of his favorite couple will appear weekly at the top of our feature page.

Other newcomers are:
For And About Teenagers - a new question and answer series answering the questions of teens. Loca' teens are invited to participate.

Bible Story - a weekly Bible story and picture in today's language.

Did You Know? - A new comic series based on strange and oftentimes little known facts.

Courthouse Squares, Punch Line and Laff of the Week, all popular cartoon features, join regulars Sweetie Pie, Life With the Rimples Hometown Happenings and The Home Team, to give readers of this newspaper one of the best features pages found in any weekly newspaper anywhere!

The Madoc team are [back row] Carol Whiteman, Linda Bailey, Lori Stoklosar, Kim Heyworth, Tammy Twiddy, Karen Whiteman, Donna Lee. [Centre row] Denise Twiddy, Nancy Kirkpatrick, Tammy Bateman, Shelley Nolan. [Front row] Leslie Mason, Penny Twiddy. Absent were Sandra Chapman, Cindy Rooney, Diane Campbell and Doreen Campbell.

Madoc Pee Wee girls win

The Madoc Pee Wee Girls won the final game of the league playoffs against the Springbrook A Team.

The team, ranging in age from ten to 13 consisted of Linda Bailey, Tammy Bateman, Diane Campbell, Doreen Campbell, Sandra Chapman, Kim Heyworth, Nancy Kirkpatrick, Donna Lee, Leslie Madon, Shelly Nolan, Cindy Rooney, Lori Stoklosar, Penny Twiddy, Tammy Twiddy, Carol Whiteman, and Karen Whitman. For most of the girls it was their first year of organized softball.

The team has had a long season, starting before school let out in June and ending after the start of the fall semester.

Summer holidays drew heavily on the number of players available for games. At one point the team dropped to eight players, but they kept trying. Now, after the regular season's games, the quarter finals, the semi-finals, and the finals, the Madoc girls have emerged victorious.

The management and players would like to say "thank you" to all the parents who followed them through the season.

They're workin'
on two projects!

CHSS night school

Centre Hastings Secondary School night courses begin on Thursday, Oct. 10 from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. running every Thursday night for 24 weeks.

The fee for each course is $12 and for senior citizens, $5. The courses offered are listed elsewhere in this paper.

There are however, a few changes this year. Additional courses that may be added include a book study course with author Leo Simpson as instructor. The main content of this course is studying modern Canadian authors, reading their novel and then discussing it in class.

The arts and crafts courses have new instructors this year. Paul Thraine will be teaching oil painting and Mrs. Trudy Veerman will be teaching ceramics. Both instructors are highly qualified in their fields.

Taxidermy is offered this year, also, with James Vogel as the instructor.

The Physical Education course offers something very special for men and women - The Universal Gym - the only one of its kind in Hastings County.

The Gym, which cost over $3,000 is used to build strength and endurance.

The Gym's purpose is to have maximum use by the school and the community.

The Gym greatly reduces group training time, is ideal for users of all ages and sizes, requires minimum floor space, minimum maintenance and maximum safety. It includes 16 different stations and is the only system that thoroughly conditions both the extension and flexion leg muscles groups.

Also being provided in the course as an alternative means of fitness are bicycle machines, rowing machines, and games such as badminton, basketball, volleyball and trampoline.

The course runs two nights, Wednesdays for women and Thursdays for men. The course has a limited registration and will have as its instructor Carm Donato.

Accupuncture topic

Dr. G.M. Deyo, a medical practitioner from Peterborough visited Centre Hastings Secondary School on Sept. 18 to discuss the recent interest in accupuncture within and outside the medical profession.

He briefly described the philosophy behind this ancient Chinese art and then told quite bluntly that he was unable to accept the philosophy himself because it had no rational scientific basis. For this reason, he refuses to practise accupuncture although he has taken the necessary courses and is certified to do so. He admits that there are many capable doctors who do believe in it and successfully treat many illnesses with it. According to him, the ability of accupuncture to eliminate pain is due mainly to indirect hypnotic effects. Furthermore, he thinks that accupuncture can be successful in treating psychosomatic illnesses because of its effect on the psyche rather than on the body.

He believes that direct hypnosis is just as effective, far more honest and scientific and far less dangerous than jabbing needles into people.

Dr. Deyo provided an intriguing, although somewhat disconcerting view of accupuncture. Doubtless we shall hear more on this subject in the future.

Sunday school teachers meet

Sunday School teachers from the United Churches in Stirling, Queensboro, Springbrook and Marmora met in St. Andrew's Christian Education Building Saturday to prepare for the responsibility of sharing the Christian faith with young people.

During the morning they considered how people learn, using a film, a game and discussion. These new approaches to learning were then related to their individual teaching roles.

Mrs. Delbert Carman and Mrs. Charlie Derry made available a fine display of vital new books. Leadership was provided by Mr. Carl Reid, Mrs. Myra McWilliams, Mrs. Joan Fox and Mrs. Nancy Peters.

Everyone present enjoyed a tasty noon meal served by the UCW. In the afternoon the teachers examined the activities of their departments and explored the new ideas in storytelling, music, and handicrafts which enrich the basic curriculum. Informal worship completed the event.

Chicken itself is a year-round favorite. Versatile, mild in flavor, it lends itself to combination with almost any food. Do you read the labels on the chicken you buy? Do you know the real difference between a grade A and a utility chicken? The only difference is about 30 cents a pound, and the fact that the utility chicken had an accident during the processing. Wings, a drumstick or pieces of skin may be missing, but the quality of the meat is equal to that of a grade A chicken. "Fowl" on the label of course means that it is an old hen. Lower in price, usually more flavorful, it is an excellent choice for simmering, stewing, or when pieces of chicken are desired. Chicken rates in quality with other meats as a complete protein, and has the added advantage of being high in protein and lower in fats than most other meats. Removing the skin lowers its calories, making it a good choice in reducing or low fat diets. Neither of the following recipes however fit into either of those categories.

Sticky Chicken.

1/4 cup brown sugar
1 tsp chili powder
1 tsp celery seed
1 tsp oil
1 tsp soya sauce
1 tin tomato soup
1/4 cup vinegar
chicken wings, 3 per person.

Brush wings with soya and oil, then sprinkle with dry ingredients. Brown well under broiler, being careful not to burn. Keeping wings separated as much as possible. Cover with soup, and vinegar. 300 degrees, basting frequently until tender, and sauce is thickened to caramel consistency.

Fool-Proof Chicken

1 can cream of celery soup
1 can cream of chicken soup
1 pkg dry onion soup mix
1 soup can dry white wine

1 cup wild rice
3 whole chicken breasts, boned skinned and split.

Mix soups, wine and rice and let stand for several hours. Arrange chicken breasts on top of mixture in oven-proof, shallow casserole. Cover. (If casserole has no cover, make one of foil) Put in 350 degree oven for one hour. Then remove cover, stir gravy and cook for another hour. Makes 6 servings. Note: For a less expensive casserole, use either brown or long grain rice in place of wild rice. Or you could use a combination.

new officers for houses

Election day was Friday, Sept. 13 for the inter-house council system. Each house had elected two representatives to run for the house system-council positions of head girl, secretary and social convenors. Electioneering took place with appropriate posters and each nominee made a pre-election speech at an assembly.

Elected to fill the positions were:
Head girl, Cindy Smith
Secretary, Cindy Fox
Social Convenor, Cindy Walker

Positions of head boy and treasurer were filled by the former student council vice-president, Mark Spencer, and former secretary, Rick White, in order to provide a continuum from last year.

The students also voted on a theme and the whole house system will carry out the theme "Indians" with each house choosing an Indian tribe as its name and colors to identify each house in inter-house competition.

Health budget to rise

Health Minister Frank Miller says he expects the over-all provincial health budget will increase by about 25 per cent next year -- adding he doesn't know where the extra cash will come from.

In an interview outside a cabinet meeting, the minister said recent labor settlements giving higher wages and salaries to nurses, technicians and non-medical hospital personnel are partly to blame.

The original budget for this year was set at about $2.2 billion, but a ministry spokesman said wage increases now in effect might push that to $2.5 billion by the end of the year.

A 25 per cent increase would add about $620 million to the end-of-the-year figure.

Miller said he isn't sure where the extra money will come from, although hospitals have been asked to try to cut down on operating expenses by about 2 per cent.

He said he prospect of a big jump in health spending is forcing the cabinet to "look long and hard at expenditures in other ministries."

However, payments from the Ontario Health Insurance Program (OHIP) will not rise, he added.

The program pays only about one-fifth of the health budget and "it's not a progressive tax," he said. "We have no intention of raising it in the foreseeable future...if ever."

A very successful sale and supper was held on Saturday afternoon by the choir of St. Peter's Church in the store lately vacated by Mr. Ludbrook and loaned by Mr. John McKenzie. Large bouquets of asters, stocks and dahlias gave an attractive appearance to the window while smaller bouquets decorated the tea tables. The members of the choir, under the leadership of Mrs. C. Whytock and aided by the women of the congregation, had charge of the tables and sale counter, and candy, home-cooking and farm produce found eager purchasers, while an attractive supper menu greeted those who patronized the tables. The whole affair was highly satisfactory netting the choir the sum of $80.

A very enjoyable evening was spent on Sept. 16 when a reception was given the High School teachers and students also the Public School teachers by the Epworth League of the Methodist Church. The invitation was heartily responded to when about one hundred gathered in the Sunday School room which was beautifully decorated in old gold and black, also with many bouquets of flowers. The evening was spent in games and contests in which the visitors entered into with great enthusiasm. After serving lunch, the evening was brought to a close by the National Anthem.

Mr. Harold Cross BA will receive the degree of Master of Arts from Queen's University at the Convocation to be held next month at Kingston.

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Saturday, September 6 by Rev. A.H. Foster of Madoc, when Lottie Hazel, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McGuire, of the Scotch Settlement, was united in marriage to Mr. Austin Ray, of Ivanhoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ray. They will reside at Ivanhoe.

Mr. and Mrs. David Jones of Winona reported at this office seeing a freak egg at the home of Mr. Cecil Boyle at Eldorado. The egg which measured 7 1/2 by 6 1/2 inches was laid by a 5 1/2 month old pullet and besides having another egg inside it, complete with hard shell, etc., had two well formed yolks.

The Good Will Club met at the home of Mr. Naythan Bronson on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Two tickets were drawn on a quilt and on a cushion which were donated by Mrs. Walter Foley, Mrs. Pearl Herrington and Mrs. Beatrice Herrington. The lucky winners were Mr. Elwood Bateman, who won the quilt and Mr. Frank Waser, of Mineral Springs, Ohio, who won the cushion. The tickets were drawn by Mrs. McAdams, a visitor. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Announcing... a new car designed to give you an efficient use of space, fuel and money.

Granada Ghia 4-Door Sedan. Shown with optional deluxe bumper group.

Ford Granada. The design of the times.

The Design: With an overall length of 197.7", Granada is over one and a half feet shorter (and about a quarter-ton lighter) than most 1974 mid-size cars, so you can expect good gas mileage. It's about the size of a Mercedes 280 and features plenty of family-size room inside.

The Construction: Granada's body parts are welded into a solid unit. And then, to help protect against rust, Granada's body is covered with 13 lbs. of primers and chip-resistant baked enamel.

The Comforts: A close look at Granada shows that it was thoughtfully planned for passenger riding comfort... contoured reclining front bucket seats adjust to more than 100 positions, and tuned suspension and a sophisticated use of insulation result in an extremely quiet ride.

The Economics: Every Granada comes with gas saving steel-belted radial ply tires that deliver excellent tread life. Granada's standard engine is a 250 CID Six that's economical and easy to maintain. Along with two optional V-8's (302 and 351 CID), it's precisely balanced to resist the vibrations that can cause engine wear. All Granadas feature solid state ignition for less scheduled maintenance than former systems.

The Models and Features: Granada is available in 2-Door and 4-Door Sedans and is offered in two series, Granada and Granada Ghia. The array of Granada standard features include:

a 250 CID Six engine with solid state ignition; 3-speed manual transmission; front disc brakes; BSW steel-belted radial ply tires; bright moldings and opera windows (2-Door); contoured individual reclining front bucket seats; deep cut-pile nylon carpeting; burled walnut woodtone applique on instrument panel; sound insulation and ride package; and all Ford Safety Design Features. And Granada Ghia models offer even more standard features and appointments.

IMPORTANT NEWS FOR NEW CAR BUYERS

Some 1975 cars require the use of more expensive unleaded gasoline which is not readily available.

We want you to know all Ford of Canada 1975 car lines can be refueled with any gasoline, at any pump, at any station, anywhere. This also means you can select the gasoline price that suits you best.

Some 1975 cars will be equipped with catalytic converters. The converter is an emission control device that requires the use of unleaded gasoline. Because this fuel is not readily available throughout Canada, all engines (with the exception of one, the optional 2.8 litre V-6) for all 1975 lines of Ford of Canada cars have been designed to meet the new Canadian exhaust emission standards without requiring converters. This means they can be fueled with any gasoline—unleaded, premium, or the lower priced regular. This is of particular importance to those who travel in rural areas where the availability is substantially less than major urban centres.

Economy "Extenders": In addition to convenience of fuel availability and choice, there are a number of features engineered into every 1975 Ford of Canada car line that contribute to fuel economy and lower operating costs • Steel-belted radial ply tires • Solid state ignition • Improved engine tuning • Optimum rear axle ratios • Extended service intervals.

Arthritis is a major cause of poverty in Canada

Arthritis is the major cause of disability among Canadians.

The Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society is the only organization in Canada devoted to the alleviation of suffering and disability caused by arthritis.

The need for medication in 1975 will be expected to be $4,840,000.

There are 95,000 Canadians confined to bed or wheelchair and 428,000 partially disabled due to arthritis. This results in 9,000,000 days lost production annually and $457,000,000 loss to the economy - making arthritis a root cause of poverty.

There are more than 100 different kinds of arthritis.

Arthritis due to infection can be cured. Arthritis due to gout can be completely controlled. Joints destroyed by arthritis can be replaced with mechanical substitutes. Systemic lupus erythematosus, once almost uniformly fatal, can now be treated effectively. Treatment methods have been developed which can prevent disability in about 80 per cent of patients with rheumatoid arthritis.

The prevention of disability is good, but it is not good enough.

We need to discover the cause and cure of arthritis. Even more important, we must discover how to prevent it. Medicine is close to understanding the inflammatory processes which cause the destruction of tissues involved in arthritis. It is likely that the cause and cure will be known within 10 years. The Society's program is developing the specially-trained people to apply existing knowledge to improve care of arthritis patients now and to bring ever nearer the conquest of arthritis.

With your help, we may be able to find a cure to prevent this major crippling disease.

Volunteers will be coming to your home soon. Please greet them generously. If you would like to be a volunteer, call Hugh Jenny, RR 4, Warkworth, 924-2144; Sandy Greaves, 61 Front St., Hastings, 696-2877; William Carter, 21 Pellissier St. N. Kenneth Bateman, 113 St. Lawrence St., Madoc, and Debra Baumhour, 16, were treated and released at Belleville General Hospital Tuesday, after being involved in a two car accident on County Road 11, three miles west of Highway 62.

Bateman was alone in his truck at the time of the accident; Baumhour was a passenger in a car driven by Fern Lemmon, 17, of Eldorado.

Both vehicles were considered complete write-offs as a result of the mishap.

A Montreal man fell asleep at the wheel of his car Wednesday evening, swerving off the road and knocking down 20 guideposts before coming to rest.

Driver of the vehicle was Ronald Anthony Rachman, 29.

The accident occurred, on Highway 7, one mile west of the Hastings - Lennox and Addington County Line.

Geography teacher Dave Sellers manages a hit

No-Stars down the Hasbeens

Last Wednesday, the Centre Hastings Secondary School Hasbeens dared to accept the challenge given by the Student No-Stars. The result was a five inning 17-3 victory for the No-Stars. However, the score doesn't tell of the fine showing these chalk-dusted teachers made. At the end of the third inning, the Hasbeens rallied behind a home-run delivered by Mr. "Hotlips" Hotchkiss and tied the exhibition, 3-3. The No-Stars then went to bat and showed their professionalism by recording 11 runs in one inning.

The game was highlighted by the sexy No-Stars cheerleaders and the Hasbeen cheerleaders who contributed a fine display of humorous gags. Jim Gaylord pitched the first four innings for the No-Stars and Brian did the final inning honors. Jerry Reid caught a fine game, overseen by the impartial umpiring of our principal, Mr. Henderson. Other No-Players were Mike Champagne, Fred Stewart, Dave Forestell, Garent Pidgen, Ray Murphy, Greg Carroll and Tom Maloney. Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Sutton made up the pitching/catching battery for the Hasbeens. A magnificent display of sportsmanship and a baseball barrel of laughs was enjoyed by all.

Senior squad downs B.C.I.

Tuesday Sept. 19, our Senior Football Team defeated the BCI squad 8-6. Harley Williamson scored a touchdown and Jim Gaylord booted a couple of singles to lead the CHSS Centurions to the win. Jim Gaylord was named the Most Valuable Player of the game. It was a hard fought battle and we are looking forward to many more victories, perhaps even the Bay of Quinte Championship.

Two school holidays this week

But teachers have to work

Early in September each student attending an elementary school in Hastings County received a calendar of holidays for the school year. Among those days that the elementary students will not attend school are days that the Hastings County Board of Education has allotted for staff evaluation, planning, and professional development. The first two of these days in the school year are September 26 and 27.

The primary division teachers of the schools in Centre Hastings Associate School Group, namely, Earl Prentice, Madoc Public, Madoc Township, and S.H. Connor will be meeting with David Snedden, mathematics consultant, and his team to develop skills in the use of the metric measures. David Smith, Board co-ordinator of Community Use of Schools, will also meet with this group and direct activities in team building. Friday's sessions will be devoted to effective uses of materials in the primary division under the direction of Miss Dianne Dalton and Mrs. Mary Manley, primary consultants with the Peterborough County Board of Education.

While the primary teachers are in attendance at Madoc Township school, the junior division teachers will meet at Tweed-Hungerford Senior School. Their workshops will emphasize the development of skills in metric measures and unit building in Social Studies. The respective guest leaders of these two workshops, are Professor John Olson of Queen's University and Lloyd Jones, consultant of Social Sciences with The Hastings County Board of Education.

The teachers of the intermediate division from Marmora Senior Public School, Madoc Public and Tweed-Hungerford will be meeting on the morning of September 25th, with Gary Allin, department head of guidance at Centre Hastings Secondary School, to develop consultation skills. In the afternoon they will return to their respective schools to share experiences and engage in Planning for the Fall Term. Friday, these teachers will gather in formal and informal sessions with the various departments at Centre Hastings Secondary School, to develop consultation skills. In the afternoon they will return to their respective schools to share experiences and engage in planning for the Fall Term. Friday, these teachers will gather in formal and informal sessions with the various departments at Centre Hastings Secondary School with a focus of establishing relationships in subject areas to better serve the needs of all students.

Mr. Frank Tate, Superintendent of Schools for Centre Hastings Associate School Group, will meet with each of the teacher groups on the first day to provide a curriculum overview and share with teachers aims and objectives of the Centre Hastings A.S.G. for the current school year.

180 students receive CHSS Honor Bars

One hundred and eighty students received Honor Bars on Wednesday which can only verify the fact that the student body of this school is of very high intelligence and that we have a highly qualified teaching staff.

The highlight of the assembly was the presentation of two hilarious skits by the Spirit Club.

Jennifer Sprague and Roy Spannbauser received the Angus MacKenzie awards for the highest standing in Year's 1 and 2 respectively. The George West trophy awarded to the highest achiever in Year 3 was won by Evelyn Kotulski. Each of the three scholars received an engraved plaque with the CHSS crest mounted on it.

This year one of our geography students, Mark Vance, obtained an outstanding achievement in coming first in the Trent University map Making Competition, Junior Division.

On Wednesday, Sept 25, 180 students received Academic bars in recognition of their high scholastic achievement. The Honor students of Houses 1 and 2 are printed this week, next week be sure to look for the scholars of Houses 3, 4, and 5.

Not everybody can make Sunday day of rest!

I would like to address a comment to the Madoc area ministerial with regard to the open letter published this week in your paper, protesting the Sunday opening of the fall fair.

Firstly, the ordination of Sunday as the "Lord's Day" is a point of contention. The basic idea of a day of rest is that man (or anything else for that matter) cannot function properly or remain in good health if he does not rest himself at times. As time goes on, embellishments were added such as worship etc. The day does not have to be Sunday, tradition has merely dictated that it is. However, with the population of the world, as it is, we can no longer take the position that Sunday is the only day that a man can rest. There is too much of a need for services at all times, including Sundays to have everyone rest then.

The fair itself is a service. It provides the participant with the chance to see what others are doing in the special fields of interest and a chance to better themselves.

For the spectator it allows for rest, relaxation and of course, entertainment. Secondly, there is mention in the letter of the tensions of family life due to the loss of Sundays in the authors concept. The fair provides an excellent opportunity for the family to be together in a thoroughly relaxed atmosphere.

Unfortunately, the fair does have its more commercial aspects in the midway, but that appears to be what the people want. What would the fair be without it?

Lastly, as a former resident of Madoc, I have seen the fair and it is to my mind one of the best, for it's bringing together of all the components of rest, relaxation and excitement.

To all fair-goers and participants, I wish you all the enjoyment in the world. To the planners, good luck and congratulations on a job well done in the past.

ONE FOOT IN THE FURROW

Every board getting roasted

By BOB TROTTER

Because one marketing board is having growing pains, every marketing board is getting roasted these days.

The Canadian Egg Marketing Agency is feeling the flames. And some of the criticism is justified. It seems immoral to people in this country that 11 or 20 million eggs—whatever the final figure may be—were left to rot when people in other parts of the world are starving.

The spoilage of any food product is regrettable and egg producers in this country are just as worried as the consumer that the marketing agency gets things straightened out. And soon.

What the many big-city papers and newscasters are not saying is that spoiled eggs were offered to buyers before they were put in storage but there were no buyers. If there had been buyers, the eggs wouldn't have gone into storage.

The egg agency's biggest mistake has been in not bringing supplies in line with demand.

The agency is having one helluva problem. It is trying to curtail supply. It is trying to bring some order into the chaos of egg production that has been prevalent for five years or more.

Egg producers have been running huge losses. If something hadn't been done in the way of organization, too many would have been forced out of business. In the end, the consumer would have been paying more—much more—than the current price. Production would have ended up in huge flocks owned and controlled by a handful of big producers who would dictate prices.

Marketing boards have been blasted. Letters to editors deplore the existence of marketing.

"Abolish them all," is the cry.

And many big producers resurrect the refrain that marketing boards simply subsidize the inefficient producers.

The real issue here is not spoilage, not marketing boards, but whether farmers can gain a voice in establishing the price of their product. The whole country gets up in arms when farmers pull a goof. But how many cabinet ministers and labor leaders get into the act when unions make exorbitant demands?

David Archer, president of the Ontario Federation of Labor, had no business demanding Eugene Whelan's resignation. Certainly, Mr. Whelan said nothing during the Toronto transit strike. Or any other major labor dispute in this province. Mr. Whelan knows farmers and farming and he sticks to what he knows. Mr. Archer could take a few lessons from him.

It's to be hoped that marketing board officials and the senior governments hang in there, baby, until this controversy about eggs is over.

Both Gordon Hill, president of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, and Mr. Whelan have set the tone for the battle.

Mr. Hill was quoted recently as saying it is completely unacceptable for a labor leader to interfere in the collective bargaining process for farmers' produce. He maintains farmers will work out the present problems themselves, the same as they have done in other marketing boards.

Mr. Whelan said last week he has not changed his mind about the need for marketing organizations. Canadian farmers, he said, have been subject to every whim of fortune.

"I will do my damndest to provide them with the same security enjoyed by every other walk of life," he was quoted as saying. "I'm not ashamed... to be associated with people who produce a surplus. The trouble is that too many Canadians are not producing enough. That is what is causing inflation."

And if you just think about that statement for a few minutes, it makes a lot of sense. Too many people are doing too little and getting paid too much for doing it these days. If every other sector of the economy were as efficient as the farmers of Canada, inflation problems would not be as insurmountable as they seem to be.

Good quality cattle in show

The Hastings County Black-and-White Show, judged by Ralph J. Fawcett, Winchester, on September 13th at the Quinte Exhibition, Belleville, featured 42 head of good quality cattle displayed by 7 exhibitors. This number is on a par with last year.

Moir Alcartra Rockman Leader, a 7-year-old daughter of Lassie Leader, picked up the Championship ribbon for owner Robert Burkitt, Frankford. Judge Fawcett termed her an easy winner siring her balance, her excellent udder, and lots of dairy character. He chose her to win the Best Udder Award of the show. Judge Fawcett then turned his attention to the Grand Champion's stablemate, 2-year-old Nolevue Expo Joyce sired by North Leeds Expo Citation for Reserve Grand Champion. He felt she typed in well with the Grand Champion showing upstandingness and good growth for a 2-year-old. A close honourable mention was 4-year-old Glenalcomb Crown Pettie owned by Delbert McComb, Stirling.

McComb had little trouble wrapping up Premier Breeder and Exhibitor honours. Robert Burkitt was runner-up in both instances.

The first prize Senior Yearlings of the show Donnandale Crystan Madge sired by Romandale Petro Crystan, was awarded the Junior Champion Female rosette. Owned by Keith Donnan, Stirling, Madge had scale and clemness in her front end. Classmate Glenalcomb Centurion Nell owned by Delbert McComb came in Reserve.

The only group-class of the evening, the Breeder's Herd, was taken by Delbert McComb followed in succession by Robert Burkitt and Alton Goodman, Stirling.

The evening show was witnessed by a large crowd. Dianne Jarrell, who was crowned the Hastings County Dairy Princess for 1974-75 earlier in the evening awarded the ribbons and rosettes.

Egg Producers chairman tries to justify increase

Attempting to justify the probable egg price increase, James Johnstone, chairman of the Ontario Egg Producers Market Board, says the price of feed has risen by the equivalent of from four to six cents per dozen eggs produced, since the end of last June.

The price of young pullets has increase since last year by about 25 cents to about $2.25 for a young hen who may produce 18 dozen eggs during her laying cycle of about a year, after which she is sold for aprice which has declined by as much as 50 per cent in the past year.

A spokesman for a major feed producer said the price of feed for cage laying hens—a combination of corn, soybeans, other grains and vitamin additives balanced by computer and described as "a better-balanced diet than humans eat"—has risen by $30 per ton since the end of June to an average price of $167 a ton. That is the price to a large producer buying bulk-truck-load lots of 14 tons each, he said.

The spokesman linked the price to the cost of ingredients, particularly corn.

An Ontario egg producer, if he were able to produce nothing but Grade-A large eggs, could be earning about 12 cents a dozen eggs, or $2.42 for each hen during its laying cycle. But that's not counting overheads, which now include an over-production penalty paid to the Canadian Egg Marketing Agency of 2-and-a-half cents per dozen.

In Illinois, where there are no government egg-marketing agencies, farmers are reported losing as much as 80 cents per hen or two cents per dozen eggs—again not counting overheads.

Eggs are selling in Southern Illinois for around 52 cents per dozen, wholesale. Stores in Ontario pay suppliers 58 cents per dozen for Grade A large eggs, the price set by the marketing agency.

TODAY'S

ALLEN

Andy has just started Grade 5. This would not be newsworthy for many 10-year-olds - but Andy has had some unsettling years with frequent moves and school changes and general upsets. Despite these he has never had a failure.

Good-looking Andy is French Canadian and Anglo Saxon in descent. He has wavy blonde hair, hazel eyes and fair, clear, skin.

Healthy and active, Andy loves outdoor activities. Team games do not appeal to him - he prefers things a boy can do on his own or with one or two others. He is an excellent swimmer and enjoys camping, fishing, hiking, nature study. Andy spends a good deal of time reading. His hobbies are sketching, painting and cooking. He has a good voice and likes to sing.

Andy is affectionate and outgoing, inclined to be boastful but not really self-confident. He is high-strung, enthusiastic and sensitive.

Warm, mature parents with a fondness for outdoor life will be right for Andy. They will need to be patient while this boy who has moved often learns he is now finally and really settled and part of a family. He has the makings of a fine son. Andy should be the youngest or the only child.

To inquire about adopting Andy, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, please contact your local Children's Aid Society.

For And About Teenagers

THIS WEEK'S LETTER: Wow! Two years is a long time when you are growing up and a lot of things can change in that period of time. It seems like this young man has changed and he has found a new girlfriend. He's trying to drop you by not being honest with you or himself. That's why he's finding fault with you now. This boy and you need to sit down and have an honest, meaningful discussion. If both of you realize your relationship isn't working out, try to be mature enough to leave the relationship as friends.

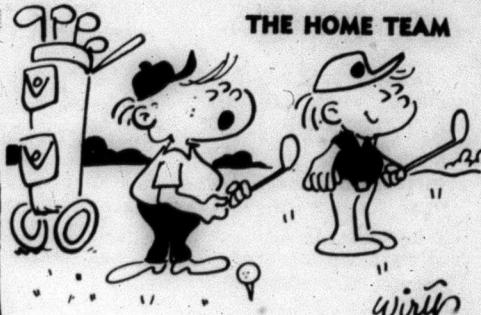

OUR REPLY: Give him up.

Paul's Message to the Elders...

And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

Shorty coming "home"

Allan McKenzie "Shorty" Ross will be bringing the Conklin Midway Shows to the Madoc Fair this year.

But for Shorty, it will really be a return to 'show biz' in the village he grew up in.

Shorty used to serve as treasurer of the Ross and Kincaid Mighty Circus, a back yard show that was staged each year.

It featured such widely known performers as Cal "Wildman" Kincaid and aerialist Ken West.

Kincaid, it is said, was so wild, he had to be contained in a parrot cage - to protect the many youngsters that attended the annual showing.

Shorty was employed by P. H. Naylor at his General Motors car dealership, but left Madoc in 1936 to follow the trail to riches and success in the automobile business elsewhere.

He retired from the business in 1970, and became secretary-treasurer of Conklin-Garrett Ltd., the parent company of Canada's Conklin Shows.

Shorty is really looking forward to returning to Madoc, and to bring to the fair for the first time, the fine Conklin array of rides games for everyone to enjoy.

Shorty will be at the fair and is looking forward to greeting all his old friends and neighbours.

Madoc Township Reeve Cecil Woods was among recent entries in the team class of the horse competitions at the Madoc Fair.

This year's entries, given good weather, could well draw a record crowd. [Madoc Review Photo].

Grant Ketchison and Don Bailey on stage at a recent Madoc Fair get things ready for a really big show. This year's events, however, promise to be even more exciting. Don't miss them - Saturday and Sunday.

When the need arises, please visit my heated enclosed showroom located at the rear of the MacKenzie Funeral Home. We have a large supply of artificial flowers and ornamental glass floral bricks.
